Civil War Resources

Title: Carlisle Morning Bulletin

Date: April 16, 1861

Location: Cumberland County Historical Society

Contact:
Archives & Special Collections
Waidner-Spahr Library
Dickinson College
P.O. Box 1773
Carlisle, PA 17013

717-245-1399

archives@dickinson.edu
THE MORNING BULLETIN
CARLISLE, TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 16, 1861.

THE MORNING BULLETIN

We have concluded to issue, every morning, a sheet containing all the telegraphic news up to a late hour of the preceding day, in relation to the exciting condition of affairs. This has been undertaken at considerable expense, and with many doubts as to its being a "paying operation," but knowing the anxiety of the public to obtain the news at the earliest moment, we will make an effort to accommodate them. The "Bulletin" will be issued at 7 o'clock, thus giving all the news of the previous day eight hours in advance of the city papers.

Copies can be obtained at the "Democrat" office, or from the carrier.

WAR NEWS

WAR NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

Excitement in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, April 15.

Some excitement was created at Fourth and Chestnut streets by the crowd assembled before a printing office where a small advertisement sheet called the P. Utine Flag was printed. The proprietors displayed the American Flag but the crowd entered the building and threw the objectionable papers through the windows. An American Flag was finally displayed, and the excitement subsided, for an hour. The street was impassable for the crowd.

Departure of Maj. Anderson.

CHILlicothe, Sunday.

Maj. Anderson, with his command departed in the Isabella for New York. In saluting his flag, 70 departed a pile of cartridges exploded killing two men and wounding four others. The troops were buried in the Fort with military honors, the other to be buried by the Carolina troops. The wounded were brought to this city.

Confederate and Palmetto flags were hoisted on the Fort which is garrisoned by the Palmetto Guards. It is believed that the war vessels have established a blockade.

Troops in the District of Columbia.

WASHINGTON, April 15.

There is an apparent calm throughout the city this morning, and a deep feeling of suspense exists. Ten District of Columbia regiments have thus far been mustered into the service of the government, sixteen in all, are required. The number of Federal troops here is about 809.

An Advice from Montgomery.

WASHINGTON, April 15.

George N. Sandler has sent the following dispatch to prominent northern politicians:

MONTGOMERY, April 14.

To Mayor Wood.

Dear Richmond and Augustus Bellomy: John York, A hundred thousand men cannot occupy and hold South Carolina. The entire South are under arms and the negroes strengthen the military force. Peace must come quickly or it will be too late. Rebellion is the South will not be held responsible for Lincoln's acts unless he endorses them. We have no wish to destroy the South. The commercial ties of the South will not be broken, but we will not consider the commercial ties of the South as binding. The commerce of Rhode Island and New Jersey is safe when distinguished. Have you any doubt? Answer is rough and ready. The war is ours and nobody hurt. With respectful salutations, we tender our best regards.

GEO. N. SANDERS.

Munitions at Savannah.

SAVANNAH, April 15.

An immense quantity of munitions of war are reaching Savannah.

New York, April 15.

$3,000,000 for arms. ALBANY, April 15.

The Legislature, this morning, passed a bill appropriating $3,000,000 to equip 35,000 volunteers, in addition to the present State force, and Gov. Morgan has issued his proclamation accordingly.

Mr. Breckinridge sends a Dispatch.

MONTGOMERY, April 15.

Secretary Toone has received a dispatch from Mr. Breckinridge and Gov. Magoffin of Kentucky, stating that the people are greatly excited over the war news, and that their friends sympathize entirely with the South. They represent that 17,000 men of the border States are under arms and have offered their services to serve at a moment's notice for the war department at Montgomery.

Major Anderson's Sword Returned.

CHARLESTON, April 15.

When Major Anderson's quarters were burning, Gen. Sherman sent offers of assistance before the white flag was run up. Col. Wiggett received the sword surrendered by Anderson and then complimented his bravery by returning it to him.

The Fleet.

The Federal fleet is still in sight of Charleston.

Mob Spirit in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, April 15.

A dangerous mob spirit appears to have arisen from the Palmetto Flag affair. The city has been left for two or three streets and are now visiting other newspaper offices, requiring each to display flags. All principal papers have had theirs since Friday last.

20,000 Volunteers from Massachusetts.

BOSTON, April 15.

All political questions and controversies have been dropped here and the universal sentiment of the citizens is for the defense of the flag to the last. Twenty thousand and volunteers have already tendered their services at the Adjutant General's office—General R. W. Butler an ardent Breckinridge supporter has tendered his services with his entire brigade.

Offer to take the Confederate Loan.

MONTGOMERY, April 15.

An offer has been made by the treasurer's department to take the whole Confederate States loan of $15,000,000, at par, by parties in New Orleans.

Volunteers Tendered.

HARRISBURG, April 15.

Thirty-five companies have tendered their services to Governor Curtin.

Two men employed in the Patriot & Union office have been mobbed in the street for expressing disunion sentiments.

The Feeling in Baltimore.

The Minute Men of Baltimore, 2500 strong, have unfurled the stars and stripes.

Requisitions of the President.

WASHINGTON, April 15.

The following are the requisitions of the President upon the Governors of the several States, for military to act in the maintenance of the Union: New York 17 regiments; Pennsylvania 15; Illinois 6; Indiana 4; Missouri 4; Kentucky 4; Ohio 13; Tennessee 3; Massachusetts 1; Wisconsin 1; Minnesota 1; Iowa 1; Michigan 1; Delaware 1; Connecticut 1; Rhode Island 1; Vermont 2; New Hampshire 1; Maine 1. Seventy-five regiments in all of 1,000 men each.

Secession of Virginia.

It is reported that the Virginia Convention has passed a secession ordinance by about 50 majority.

Services Accepted.

HARRISBURG, Monday evening.

The Governor has accepted the services of a large number of regiments and companies who tendered their services to-day. Most of the delegates in the House have changed their votes on the war bill.

The Markets.

PHILADELPHIA, April 15.

Floor market is dull, but without change in prices. Sales of superfine flour at $7.05 a $5.50; extra at $6.02 a $5.75, and extra family at $5.75 a $6.25. Receipts small. Wheat has advanced, but not much offering. Sales of good red at $1.82 a $1.84, and white at $1.98 a $2.15. Eye commands 68 cts., corn not so firm; sales of 4,000 bushels common quality and good yellow at 68 a 69 cts, for both new and old. Oats firm at 50 cts.