BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Charles Gilbert Beetem was born in Carlisle, Pennsylvania on November 24, 1881, the first child of carpet manufacturer Edward Charles Beetem and his wife, Cecilia Loretto Bentz. At age six, Beetem was sent to the Metzger Seminary where he studied until the age of twelve. He attended the Dickinson Preparatory School until 1900, when he made the decision to enter the University of Pennsylvania. Beetem was an avid artist, and wished to immerse himself more seriously in the subject while away at college. However, the death of his father's business partner forced Beetem to return home to Carlisle shortly after he arrived at the university. He attended Dickinson College while working with his father in the family's carpet mills, and graduated in 1904. While at the college he was a four-year member of the Dickinsonian staff, and was the newspaper's sole artist. His illustrations also appeared in the Microcosm and other local publications. After graduating from Dickinson, Beetem attended the Carlisle Commercial College from 1905 to 1906 and later the Wharton School of Finance at the University of Pennsylvania from 1910 to 1911.

Following the completion of his education, Beetem continued his work at the carpet mills, becoming co-owner and general manager of the mills in both Carlisle and Philadelphia, where he spent much of his free time. Although he had given up his dream of becoming an artist, Beetem was able to utilize his talents by designing new textiles and rug designs, and taking up interior design as a hobby. In addition to these things, Beetem was a member of many clubs and organizations, such as the Hakluyt Society in England, the City Club of New York, the Manufacturer's Club of Philadelphia, and the First Humanist Society of New York. His interest in local history and talent for writing led Beetem to author numerous newspaper articles and pamphlets on Carlisle and Cumberland County, and he became the first archivist at the Cumberland County Historical Society. Throughout his lifetime, Beetem remained closely involved with his alma mater, Dickinson College, and especially with its library, to which he donated countless items.

Charles Gilbert Beetem married Mary (May) Veronica Grogan of Philadelphia on February 2, 1910 in Philadelphia. The couple had five children, although their first two girls, Dorothy and Marjory, died as toddlers. Their surviving children were Edward C. Beetem II, Donald Gilbert Beetem, and Nancy Marquart Beetem. Charles Gilbert Beetem also had two younger sisters, Mary and Edith. He died at his home on January 13, 1969 after a period of illness.

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

The Charles Gilbert Beetem Collection is housed within 13 document boxes, 2 oversized boxes, 15 oversized folders, and 21 photograph folders, and the materials are divided into 9 series: Correspondence, Financial and Legal Papers, Journals, Manuscripts, Organizations, Printed Materials, Scrapbooks, Ephemera, and Miscellaneous. Loose photographs belonging to the Beetem Collection are housed separately within the Dickinson College Photograph Archives as PC 2002.7. Materials that are too large to place in document boxes are housed separately from the rest of the Beetem Collection in an Oversized series as OC 2002.7. Each series, including the photographs and oversized, have been separately described and inventoried.

The Beetem Collection contains the papers of Charles Gilbert Beetem and his family, including a large amount of Charles Beetem's business and personal correspondence. The Financial and Legal Papers series contains documents from Charles Beetem's business interests, as well as the management of his personal accounts and the family estates. Bound and loose journals kept by Charles Beetem from 1900 to 1960 are housed in the Journals series. The Manuscripts series contains the research notes, rough drafts and manuscript copies written by Charles Beetem. Papers of organizations to which Charles Beetem belonged are housed in the Organizations series. The Printed Materials series contains published pamphlets and articles written by Charles Beetem, and newspaper articles clipped by Beetem on local topics and for his research. The Scrapbooks series contains the scrapbooks and photo albums kept by Charles Beetem. The Ephemera series contains cards, memorabilia, and programs. The Miscellaneous series includes assorted papers for several members of the Beetem family, such as report cards, notebooks, and copies of advertisements from the family businesses. Also included in the Miscellaneous series is biographical information in Charles Gilbert Beetem, and genealogical material on the Beetem and related families.

The Photographs, PC 2002.7, contain individual and group photographs of Charles Beetem, and images of the family estates. The Oversized series, OC 2002.7, consists of Financial and Legal Papers, Journals, Scrapbooks, Ephemera, and Miscellaneous. One oversized photograph is housed with the Oversized items.

The Beetem Collection offers researchers much information on both the personal and public life of Charles Gilbert Beetem with glimpses into the lives of his family and friends. Charles Beetem's interest in his hometown of Carlisle, Pennsylvania and his alma mater makes the collection a resource for information on Carlisle and on Dickinson College.

COLLECTION INVENTORY

SERIES 1 – CORRESPONDENCE

Series 1, Correspondence, consists of four boxes of personal and professional letters. The correspondence in this series is arranged alphabetically by author, and thereafter alphabetically by recipient, and then chronologically. The bulk of the letters in this series revolve around the day to day business conducted by Charles Gilbert Beetem. There are letters to his family and close friends, and also to companies that he dealt with and organizations that he wrote to for information on various subjects. By far, the majority of the letters in the series were written by, or written to, Charles Gilbert Beetem. However, this series also contains a large amount of interesting correspondence written and received by his wife, Mary Grogan Beetem, and his father, Edward C. Beetem.

Due to the bulk of correspondence in the collection, a large miscellaneous section has been created, which is arranged chronologically and follows the individual correspondents. Letters of unknown correspondents are filed here chronologically. Of note in this series are the letters to and from members of the Beetem and Lentz families. Correspondence specifically related to financial matters can be found in the Financial and Legal Papers series.

SERIES 2 – FINANCIAL AND LEGAL PAPERS

Series 2, Financial and Legal Papers, consists of Charles Gilbert Beetem's financial records and legal documents that relate to both him and his family. These papers are arranged alphabetically by family member, and then alphabetically by subject. Any correspondence related to financial matters is located in this series.

Of particular note in this series are Beetem's financial records during the Great Depression. During this time he was forced to close his carpet mills for a short period, and his extravagant lifestyle led to financial trouble. Due to their size, account books for the Carlisle Commercial College can be found in Oversized.

SERIES 3 – JOURNALS

Series 3, Journals, consists of journals kept by Charles Gilbert Beetem from 1900 through 1960. These journals reflect the day to day activities of Beetem, including the business he conducted, how he felt physically, and what he ate. Some of the journals were given titles by Beetem which reflect their subject matter. The journals are arranged chronologically; those which are bound have been designated as such. Any loose items found within these bound volumes have been housed with the volume. An additional journal from Beetem's days at his Windmoor Heath Estate is housed in the Oversized papers.

SERIES 4 – MANUSCRIPTS

The Manuscripts series contains research materials, notes, and rough drafts of Charles Gilbert Beetem. The Manuscripts series is further divided into sub-series by topics: Arabian Nights; Carlisle, Pennsylvania; Carpets; Children's Stories; Islands; Local History; Religion; Sherlock Holmes; and Miscellaneous. Under each topic, research notes are listed first, followed by rough drafts and manuscript copies. Published copies of Charles Beetem's work are listed separately in the Printed Materials series.

Beetem's research on topics in local and Carlisle history comprises the largest part of the Manuscript series. His interest and research on islands in the Pacific and the Caribbean was extensive, and is one of the larger parts of this series. Beetem's religious research is an eclectic mixture of various religions. He considered himself to be a Unitarian. Also within this series, is a children's book written by Beetem, presumably for the entertainment of his own children and grandchildren. Under the Miscellaneous sub-series there are several short stories in note and rough draft form, including a short drama, "Tragedy."

PHOTOGRAPHS - PC 2002.7

PC 2002.7, Photographs, contains all of the loose photographs of the Beetem Collection including pictures of Charles Gilbert Beetem, and the family properties. The photographs are housed separately from the manuscript portion of the collection in 21 folders. The Photographs series is arranged into People and Places. The Peoples sub-series contains individual photographs of Charles Beetem and group photographs. They are arranged chronologically by section. The Places sub-series is further divided into images of Briarcliff Manor and Windmoor Heath. These photographs are in alphabetical order by their subject. One additional photograph of Windmoor Heath is housed in with the oversized materials, and one photograph album is housed within the Scrapbooks series.
