BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Eli Slifer was born on May 23, 1818, the third of the five children of Abraham Slifer, Jr. and Mary Coulter. The family moved from Chester County to Union County, Pennsylvania when Eli was a young boy. Soon after the move, his mother died in 1825 and his father married Mary Peters in November 1826. However, both Abraham and Mary died in November 1831, causing Eli to be sent back to Chester County to live with relatives. In 1834 he returned to Lewisburg and became an apprentice to a hat maker. However, he soon found employment in the canal industry, and eventually established his own business building canal boats.

In February 1840 Slifer married Catharine Motter Frick; the couple had eight children. A year after his marriage he was named a junior partner in his brother-in-law William's canal barge firm. Slifer was able to form his own machine manufacturing company, Slifer, Walls and Shriner in 1845. For the next twenty years his strong business deals and lucrative investments in the canal, banking, and other industries earned Slifer a small fortune and much respect from the community.

His reputation as a successful businessman propelled Slifer into the realm of politics. He was a member of the State Assembly from 1850 to 1851, and from 1853 to 1854 he served as a Whig Senator to the State Senate, then controlled by a strong Democratic Party. In 1855 he gained a one year appointment as State Treasurer. Afterwards he became a Republican and was re-elected Treasurer in 1859 and again in 1860. In 1861 he resigned the position and was made Secretary to the Commonwealth by Governor Andrew Gregg Curtin. In this capacity Slifer was responsible for the raising and deployment of troops and supplies from Pennsylvania to the Union Army. On several occasions he had to take charge of state affairs during Governor Curtin's periods of illness. He retired from the post and from politics in 1867.

After the war Slifer remained active, campaigning for the Republican Party and returning to various business ventures. He had been on the Board of Curators of the University at Lewisburg (now Bucknell University) since 1854 and remained on it until 1882. He also served as the president of the Union National Bank, the Lewisburg-Tyrone Railroad (of which he had been a charter member), and the Lewisburg Waterworks. Eli Slifer died on May 24, 1888 from serious injuries suffered in a carriage accident; his wife Catharine had died in September 1886.

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

The Eli Slifer collection was donated to Dickinson College in 1951 by Edward G. Dill, a grandson of Eli Slifer. The collection is contained within 12 boxes and some oversized folders, and has been organized into four series: Correspondence, Miscellaneous, Commissions, and Photographs.

The first series, Correspondence, comprises the bulk of the collection. These letters mainly consist of political and military matters from roughly 1855 to 1865, with a strong emphasis on Slifer's tenure as Secretary of the Commonwealth. Contained within the collection are dozens of letters pertaining to the draft in Pennsylvania, the election of 1864, and requests for promotions, appointments, and positions within the government and army. The majority of documents are arranged alphabetically by author, except in the case of petitions and some correspondence. These are arranged by the pertinent individual they discuss for ease of classification. The letters are then arranged chronologically for each individual.

At the end of the register is a series of appendices that arranges the correspondence by Civil War Units, Military Affairs, Political Affairs, Business Affairs, and Miscellaneous Affairs. Military Affairs consists of all those affairs directly related to the war, mustering, and the draft. Political Affairs includes appointments, requests for offices, elections, and any matters (including military) of a strictly political nature. Business Affairs contains many of Eli Slifer's earlier business correspondence and requests by various businesses and banks requiring state assistance. Miscellaneous Affairs contains all correspondence not easily categorized into the above sections, those matters of a personal nature, or general documents of no relevance to state or military matters.

The second series, Miscellaneous, contains various documents related to Slifer's business and political affairs which are not correspondence. These documents include a muster roll, contracts, deeds, and images. The materials in this series have been arranged in four folders and six oversized folders. The oversized materials have been designated as OC 2003.4 and are housed separately.

The third series, Commissions, contains four oversized commissions for Eli Slifer and John Ott dating from 1847 to 1864. These have been arranged alphabetically by recipient and then chronologically. As they are oversized, they are housed separately in four oversized folders and have been designated OC 2003.4.

The final series, Photographs, includes photographs of Eli and Catharine Slifer as well as Andrew Hemphill Dill, a successful Lewisburg attorney who married Slifer's daughter Catherine. These photographs have been designated as PC 2003.4 and are separated from the collection in two folders housed with the Dickinson College photo collection.

Additional materials pertaining to Eli Slifer were held by Mrs. Harry E. McCormick of Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, and the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission. Mrs. McCormick's collection is now housed at Bucknell University in Lewisburg. The PHMC collection consists of microfilmed copies of the collection held at Dickinson; Dickinson also holds a copy of these microfilms.
