Wheatland, near Lancaster 11 October 1852.

My dear James,

I returned from Greensburg last night where I saw many persons who inquired for Little Bunches. You appear to be quite popular in that place. I now enclose you $15,- according to your request. I hope Dr. Carnahan may permit you to go to Iowa. On this the day before the election, I have no time to write you at length.

W. James B. Henry,

Yours affectionately,
James Buchanan

I stayed with Mr. Marchant, a great friend of yours.

acknowledg^d the receipt
