Title: Letter from John Dickinson to Robert Magaw
Date: September 4, 1787
Location: I-Original-1787-1
Dear Sir,

Please write several times to my Tenant Mrs. Jane Randolph, to pay me the rent due last fall which is forty pounds Specie, according to the contract signed in your House.

Having received no answer from her, I request the favor of you, sir, to receive the money and remit the one hundred dollars of it, by the first safe opportunity. I propose to return to Philadelphia next week but Col. James Johnson will do good as to receive the money and send it to me. I am, Sir, your sincere friend
To your littlest
Philadelphia
Octr 2nd 1787
John Dickinson
Dear Sir,

I have wrote several times to my Tenant Mr. Paul Randolph, to pay Me the Rent due last Spring, which is forty pounds specie, according to his Contract signed in your House. Having received no answer from him, I request the Favor of You, Sir, to receive the Money & remit Me one hundred Dollars of it, by the first safe opportunity - I propose to return to Wilmington next week - but, Coll. Johnson will be so good as to receive the Money & send it to Me - I am, Sir, your sincere Friend

& very hble Serv't

John Dickinson

Philadelphia

Sept'r 4th 1787.

On verso: Letter

President Dickinson