To the Receiver, heretofore John Hadden. Being a person that both my compey and myself are Desirous that he should have a Commission granted from you to him that he should be our Insign, the Company are Desirous that no other person should have the Commission but him, and therefore do recommend to you as being very fit for the office, besides his having been at abundance of Trouble and Sorrow in his own person, he is striving to be as expedious as is Capable in bating men, which are at the present very hard to be gotten for the Service, he is a person that I am very nearly acquainted with from his childhood, I see no good to let him have a Commission for my Insign, Sire, remain your most Humble and Obedt. Servt.
