Carlisle Herald,

EXTRA.

Proclamation

BY THE GOVERNOR.

HARRISBURG, Sep. 11th, 1862.

In consequence of the movements of the rebel forces at and near Hagerstown, the following general order has been prepared

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Harrisburg, Sept. 11, 4 p. m.

GENERAL ORDER NO. 36

By authority of the President of the U. S. 50,000 of the freemen of Pennsylvania, are hereby called for immediate service, to repel the now eminent danger from invasion by the enemies of the country. my

That the loyal people of Pennsylvania, will respond promptly to the call of the government, and within the next 24 hours enable the Governor to assemble an army at this capital sufficient to check a rebel invasion. The time for action has arrived.

Officers in command of company organizations, as authorized by order number 35, dated Sept. 10th, will at once report by telegraph, the place of their Head Quarters, for transportation to Harrisburg for such companies as may be ordered to move. Further calls will be made for such additional forces as the exigencies of the service may require.

The formation of companies under the general order of Sept 10, should continue to be made as rapidly as possible, until all the able-bodied loyal men of Pennsylvania are enrolled and ready for service.

By Order of

A. G. CURTIN,

Com. in Chief.

A. L. RUSSELL, Adjutant General.
