Baltimore Nov. 21. 1837

Dear Sir

I would with pleasure send you a specimen of the handwriting of the late Chief Justice, if I had one that I could conveniently spare. - But I have only one or two - and I should be unwilling to part from them as far as my own is concerned which you have been pleased to ask for in such kind terms, this letter will answer your wishes.

I am Sir

very respectfully

Yr. Obedt. Servt.

R. B. Taney
