M. W. P.

White Hall. July 16th.

My dear Judge.

Mother has received your letter, & it is very glad that you are so well. She is I think decidedly better. Her cough is still troublesome at times, but everyone here thinks she has improved wonderfully. The children are very well. I enclose Mr. Arthur's bill, which I believe you will understand. With much love from us all, I am,

Yours affectionately,
Carr M. Thowson.
