My dear Mrs Cleveland

I have waited until I thought you - as well as The President - might be able to receive
my congratulations
upon the arrival of the young gentleman ^{who} - we are all so glad to Know has come!

May 4 I promised
ourselves the pleasure of an hour or two with you at Gray Gables as we passed through Boston.
But to our great disappointment we saw it announced
that you had left
for Princeton before we got to Boston!

We could not understand the early
move - not knowing
of the expected arrival?
you certainly succeeded in keeping
all very quiet.

May joins me in heartily congratulations to you & Mr Cleveland & in all good wishes for the health & prosperity of the darling boy! —

Remember me to the dear little girls. & believe me. dear Mrs Cleveland

Always sincerely yours
Harriet Lane Johnston
