Carlisle. Jan 20. 1846

Dear Sir,

I rec^d yours of the 19. Inst. You are entitled to your Diploma Entitling to Degree of Bachelor of Laws, what may be effected at the approach ing Commencement. Five Dollars is required by the Faculty which is appropriated to the increase of the College Library. If you send it to me, I will have the matter attended to. And will send you your diploma.

Mr & Mrs Reed respectively your kind regards. I should, charged me to tell you that the bad weather hinders her from and any May-party - but if she comes, your invitation will not be forgotten.

When possible my kind regards to your father. And a cordial affection of respect
