Dr. Linn

Some of the Southern men are desirous of getting the speeches of Buchanan against the war, &c. in full.
They say they don't want to rely on the extracts.

Sent them to Senator Clemenson, & say you do so, at request of Senator Westcott.

I am told Clemenson will make a speech controverting them. With all the material you can send him, the old sage will easily be demolished.

Yrs truly
Simon Cameron
