My dear Sir

The postponement of the case of Carroll vs. Mr. Fiddon is perfectly agreeable to me - for it has so happened that my engagements in the County Court have put it out of my power to come home this week. - It is impossible at this moment to say when I can attend but I will use the first interval in the business of our Court, in order to try this case - and when Mr. Maule and myself can come down we will give you notice in time to make your own arrangements

Very truly &c. Sir
I am Sir,
Your friend
A. B. Toney
