Religious Leader
& Educator (1842-1898) Dickinson College, M.E.

Baltimore, Jan 19.

My Dear Sir - 5 20⁵ 3^{pes}

You will remember that I once honoured Mr Crozier's Speech of you and promised to return
it. I have not been able to do so until now, I send it by mail in pamphlet form. I never forget my promises, though I may for the time be unable to perform them.

I am glad to hear through Mrs Durbin that you are very comfortable in your new house.
She says it is perfect - I hope you will be happy in it & live long to enjoy it together, you & Mrs W. I spend several days in Baltimore then proceed to Columbia to a missionary meeting next Friday evening, thence to Harrisburg to Spend Sunday thence, probably, to Chambersburg Monday thence home Tuesday.

My kind regards to Mrs W.

As ever yrs.

J. P. Durbine
