Fells of Ohio 27th February 1790
My dear Sir

I expect this will find you in ^{the} bosom of your friend, a circumstance that will in a great measure cause you to forget the Fatigue & Deyer of your Tour thro the Wilderness - make my Love to Mr Thompson & every of your family -

Let me here inform you I am going to the Woods & will be Absent for some Months & having wrote Meyer Mully respecting a small sum he owes inden me & he neglecting to answer my letters I am indued in Justice to myself to commence Suit against him would therefore thank you to put the inclosed Account into the hands of an Attorney to execute it - Ct. Anderson will receive and answer any letters directed to me in my absence

Passing Dear Sir in haste
