

Dickinson College Archives & Special Collections

<http://archives.dickinson.edu/>

Documents Online

Title: Letter from Harriet Lane Johnston to Jeremiah Black

Date: February 7, 1880

Location: MC 1998.10, B4, F16

Contact:

Archives & Special Collections
Waidner-Spahr Library
Dickinson College
P.O. Box 1773
Carlisle, PA 17013

717-245-1399

archives@dickinson.edu

Feb 7. 1880

116

Dear Judge Black
Mr Curtis has written the enclosed
letter of inquiry, &
as I like to be very
sure of what I say,
I send it to you,
in the hope, that you may have some certain recollection
on the subject.
There is at Wheatland short.

a life of my dear
Uncle, which I have always considered as having been written
during the campaign.
The name of the author
I have forgotten - nor do I remember whether
he ever had an office.
One thing I do know
that if he had an office, it was not given
to him as "a reward"
for having written a
"campaign biography"
of Mr Buchanan.
Those were not the motives

which prompted my Uncle's distribution
of offices. but the motives which did prompt him, are
so far ~~as~~ beyond the understanding of men
in place now, that I am not surprised
that the ^{new} papers fall
into such errors.
We have been hoping to hear from you, or to see you. Buchanan is just recovering from a very severe attack
of rheumatism - the

dear child has been a great sufferer.

Let me hear from you
as soon as possible
on this subject, & do
not forget to return
Mr Curtis' letter, &
the scrap of paper.

With kind remembrance
to Mrs Black & Mary
believe me, always

Yours sincerely
Harriet Lane Johnston

Mrs Johnston

July 7
1880

Feb. 7 1880

Dear Judge Black

Mr Curtis has written the enclosed letter of inquiry- & as I like to be very sure of what I say, I send it to you in the hope that you may have some certain recollection on the subject. There is at Wheatland a short life of my dear Uncle, which I have always considered as having been written during the campaign. The name of the author I have forgotten- nor do I remember whether he ever had an office. One thing I do know that if he had an office, it was not given to him as "a reward" for having written a "campaign biography of Mr. Buchanan." Those were not the motives which prompted my Uncle's distribution of offices- but the motives which did prompt him are so far beyond the understanding of men in place now that I am not surprised that the newspapers fall into such errors. We have been hoping to hear from you, or to see you. Buchanan is just recovering from a very severe attack of rheumatism- the dear child has been a great sufferer.

Let me hear from you as soon as possible on this subject, & do not forget to return Mr Curtis' letter, & the scrap of paper. With kind remembrances to Mrs. Black & Mary, believe me always

Yours sincerely
Harriet Lane Johnston

1880
Feb. 7
Mrs. Johnston