My dear Sir,

For some time I have been thinking "quite long" to see you; & the more so at the present moment since the Davis Resolution has come to hand. It is infamous as well as false. Who would be so wicked, if in after years or after his death some malignant spirit can have him tried without a hearing, condemned & executed by a general & indefinite Resolution? Davis is petulant & ill tempered & annoys the Senate very much. I should not think his Resolution would pass unless it is the result of a Caucus. I do not fear it. Please come to see me.
