London 15 February 1856.

My dear Sir,

I have received your kind & acceptable letter of the ~~14th~~ ^{23rd} ultimo; but have only time to thank you for it.

Thank Heaven! my successor is appointed, & I have reason to expect Mr. Dallas by the end of the month. I shall continue at my Post until his arrival & do all I can to give him a fair start. After this shall have been done, I will either return home immediately or go for a few weeks to the Continent; I know not which at the present moment. March is a very stormy though not a dangerous month to cross the Atlantic. I am a very very bad sailor & suffer dreadfully from sea sickness.

With my kindest regards to Mr. Tyler, I remain always your friend
- my great hate
