Easton - Pa. Sep. 2. 1862

Colonel A. K. McClure

My dear Sir

As my letter is on military matters I salute you with your military title - I was much gratified on seeing in the newspapers the announcement that the Governor had secured your aid in these times of trouble & perplexity -

I see the name of A. K. Seem M.D. of Martins Creek printed in today's paper as A. K. Green. Inasmuch as the same mistake occurred in telegraphing here last week I have thought it probable that the name may be wrong on your books and therefore write that if so it may be corrected - He is a very fine man, of skill in his profession & sound in his political principles.

His appointment will I am confident gratify our country friends who are frequently jealous of Easton.

Very Truly
Yours

A. Q. Maxwell

Colonel AK McClure

My dear Sir

As my letter is on military matters I salute you with your military title I was much gratified on seeing in the newspaper the announcement that the Governor has secured your aid in these times of trouble & perplexity.

I see the name of A. L. Seem MD of Martin's Creek printed in todays paper as A. K Green. Inasmuch as the same mistake occurred in telegraphing here last week I have thought it possible that the name may be wrong on your books and therefore write that if so it may be corrected He is a very fine man, of skill in his profession & sound in his political principles.

His appointment will I am confident gratify our country friends who are frequently jealous of Easton.

Very Truly
Yours
