Dear Friends,

The Rural Gay Caucus of Pennsylvania, a group which has developed out of the Task Force on Gay Rights formed by Governor Shapp, is planning to undertake a Gay Lobby Day. This is tentatively scheduled for March 23, with a series of workshops preceding on March 20.

I would appreciate receiving whatever materials you may have at hand that might serve as resource materials for the workshops. I am particularly interested in statements on strategy, such as might expand on the article in the January issue of It's Time. I would also like to receive the Support Packet mentioned in the article - hence the $2. enclosed.

Please send this material to my post office box - my apartment mailbox is simply too small to be useful. The address is

On another matter, I watched the CBS TV series "Bronk" on Sunday, 1/18, having heard by the grape vine that NGMA found it offensive. I did find it offensive, especially to all women. I was expecting, however, to be more offended as a gay person that I was, and thus wonder how I was misled. Is it possible that you might give me more information as to how the information was promulgated?

I would note in passing that I thoroughly agree that It's Time that we see on television more occurrences of positive portrayals of the gay scene; I feel that raising consciousness on this basis is more important than going after minor negative offenses.

Sincerely,

William Hollabaugh
