BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Shaashawn Dial was born in Germany to Joyce and Cortez Dial. She has one younger brother and grew up as an “army brat” during her formative years. She received her B.A. in Philosophy, Law, and Rhetoric from Stephens College in Columbia, MI, and later relocated to central PA in 1998 to receive her M.A. in Public Administration from Shippensburg University in Shippensburg, PA.

Dial is as a poet, radio broadcaster, educator, and author. As a poet, she gained her nickname Shaashawn “The Voyce” Dial, and she later released her debut spoken word album, Voycemail, after that nickname. As a radio broadcaster, Dial became the program director of 1400 THE TOUCH in 2003, and then in 2006 became the creator/hostess of The Shaashawn Dial Show: A Dial Movement. As an educator, Dial worked as an adult basic education coordinator at Harrisburg Area Community College (HACC) and as an adjunct faculty member at Central Pennsylvania College. As an author, Dial wrote Acquired Taste of Love: Spice Filled Poems to Please Your Palate and Estrogen in the Atmosphere, both released in 2014 and both collections of poetry written by Dial.

Besides Dial’s involvement in poetry, broadcasting, and education, she is also a businesswoman. In 2007 she became the Co-Founder and Editor-in-Chief of Studs Magazine and the Public Relations Director for the Central PA Vipers, a women’s semi-professional full contact football team. She is also the founder of Voycetress Media, LLC, which she founded in 2015. Voycetress Media is a Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Business Enterprise (LGBTBE) certified business that empowers individuals and organizations through workshops and training on equity, diversity, and inclusion.

Dial has also been active within the LGBTQ+ community of Central PA. She was the Director of Equity and Affirmative Action and the Staff Liaison to the Harrisburg Relations Commission for the city of Harrisburg. She served as the inaugural co-chair of PA Governor Tom Wolf's Commission on the LGBTQ Affairs. She was also on the Board of Directors of the LGBT Center of Central PA for seven years, during which time she completed a term as president. Dial has received multiple awards. She has been a three-time winner of the PA Association of Broadcaster Award. In 2007 she received the YWCA's Tribute to Women of Excellence Award and Central Penn Business Journal's Forty under 40 Award.

In 2019, Dial became the Director of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) at her alma mater, Stephens College, and at that time was pursuing her PhD in Administration and Leadership Studies (ASL) from Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

SERIES DESCRIPTION

Shaashawn Dial's collection is broken up into 10 series: Voycemail, The Touch, Court Street Poetry Jam, Awards, Events, Newspaper Clippings, Correspondence (General), Miscellaneous, Media, and Books.

The Voycemail series contains promotional materials and documentation about the 2010 release party for Dial's debut spoken word CD "Voycemail." The Touch series contains promotional materials, scripts and notes for show planning, and correspondence that praises and thank Dial for her work on The Touch. The Court Street Poetry Jam series contains event and planning materials regarding this poetry even that Dial created and hosted.

The Awards series includes materials regarding Dial's multiple community service awards, including The Touch radio station awards, the YWCA Tribute to Women of Excellence Award, and the Central Penn Business Journal's Forty under 40 award. The Event series houses information related to events that Dial attended or hosted, and the Newspaper Clipping series houses clippings that were written by Dial or were about her work. The Correspondence (General) series houses general correspondences to Dial, mostly thank yous and congratulations.

The Miscellaneous series houses business cards, flyers for her two published works, Acquired Taste of Love: Spice Filled Poems to Please Your Palate and Estrogen in the Atmosphere, and information about Sister Act, which was a collective of female artists of color. Finally, The Media series holds Dial's CD "Voycemail," and the books series houses two anthologies to which Dial contributed poems.
