Lavender Letter

-Since 1982-

Volume 10 No. 12

A Calendar of Events for and by Women in Central Pennsylvania

December, 1992

In Review... The first Lesbian & Gay Community Recognition Banquet was held November 14, 1992 at Miss Garbo's Restaurant in Carlisle. It was a wonderful evening, attended by 127 people. Eighteen awards were given in recognition of the many years of work & contribution to our community: Nikki Knerr - for work with Unity Festival, Mary Nancarrow - PA Justice Campaign, Frank Iadecola - Continuous support of the Men's Chorus, The Lavender Letter honored Kit Sabos & Ev Stevens - establishing the Lancaster Helpline, Sue Martin & Jude Sharp - 10 years continuous support for the Womyn's Community, Mary Gage - Constant innovation in Womyn's Culture, Bobbi Carmitchell - generosity & contribution to Women's Music, Ann Garrett - involvement in Women's Community in outlying areas, Cindy Mitzel - overwhelming contribution to the York Area Women's Community, Peg Harper - for Years of work with the York Singles & Margaret Copenhaver for 3 years of continuous support to the Professional Womyn's Group, MCC honored David Leach for his work with the Church, The Gay & Lesbian Switchboard honored Joy Ufema - Work with Aids Patients & the York Hospice House, Jackie Schultz - many years of work with P-FLAG & Thurman Grossnickle received two awards for his work with the community from both Dignity & the Switchboard. Lorraine Kujawa was also surprised with an award from various groups for her 10 years of service to the Lavender Letter. The evening was spectacular and will be planned as an annual event. Thanks to all who made this night possible, the people who planned this magnificent evening, Miss Garbo's for the wonderful food & service, & all who were honored. For without you our community would not be where it is today! Thank You!!!
