1964 MICROCOSM
Dickinson College
CARLISLE, PENNSYLVANIA

Aware of those flickering images which will one day remain as memories of Dickinson, we of the 1964 MICROCOSM have attempted to organize our daily impressions of campus life around a comprehensive and meaningful theme. Thus, it is with pleasure that we present to you "A Montage of Memories."

"And, when the stream
Which overflowed the soul was passed away,
A consciousness remained that it had left,
Deposited upon the silent shore
Of memory, images and precious thoughts,
That shall now die, and cannot be destroyed."
William Wordsworth

DEDICATION

A valuable friend and advisor to the student body of Dickinson College was Alan Coutts, former Dean of Men, whose sudden death at the age of 56 was a deep shock to all who knew him.

His ability to carry out the functions of his office as Dean of Men in a warm, friendly manner made him an effective guide to all who came to him for advice. His sincere interest in each individual student enabled him to help many Dickinsonians master their problems.

Devoted to the theater and to writing, Professor Coutts was in two Broadway plays as an understudy and actor, and in more recent years has appeared occasionally with the Allenberry Players.

Author of 200 radio dramatic scripts, many one-act plays and numerous articles, Professor Coutts also contributed to "Speech Handbook" and was the author of a speech manual for the New York Telephone Company.

In his enthusiastic support of Mermaid Players productions, his position as assistant swimming coach in charge of divers, and his participation in Student Senate activities, one can glimpse the large and vital role played by Professor Coutts in the life of the Dickinson community. It is in remembrance and deep appreciation of service to Dickinson College that the student body of 1964 dedicates this yearbook to "Dean Coutts."

Miss Microcosm

Miss Microcosm of 1964 is Virginia Krueger, in whom the attributes of natural beauty, active intellect, and warm friendliness are attractively combined.

A senior biology major, Ginny has completed a college career worthy of emulation. Academic distinction is one of her many achievements. Consistently a Dean's List student, she also won the 1963 Parlan Science Scholarship.

Ginny's tapping into Wheel and Chain honorary society is evidence of her activity in another area -- service to the Dickinson community. Capacities in which she has served include secretary of Student Senate, vice-president of Chi Omega, upper-class counselor, and discussion leader during orientation. Ginny has also worked on the literary staffs of the Dickinsonian and MICROCOSM, and she has been an active committee member for Follies, aquacade and Mermaid Players' productions.

Ginny's glowing loveliness has been previously recognized in many ways. She was Little Colonel of Military Ball in her freshman year, a member of the 1961 Homecoming Court, and a member of the Miss Microcosm courts for the past two years.

In the life of Dickinson College, Virginia Krueger has been both a unique and a representative coed, completely worthy of her new title, Miss Microcosm of 1964.

MAID OF HONOR

Petite and charming, Brenda Sadler appears for the third time as Maid of Honor. A senior majoring in political science, Brenda has worked for the Dickinsonian, Follies, and as an officer in Phi Mu. Besides serving on the executive committee and various sub-committees of Student Senate, she was a discussion leader during orientation and an active member of the Methodist student group.

One of the most popular and attractive girls at Dickinson, Brenda has been a familiar figure in campus beauty courts throughout her four years on campus.

THE JOSEPH PRIESTLEY AWARD

The presentation of the Joseph Priestley Award on March 19 highlighted Priestley Day, a celebration held each year at Dickinson College to honor Priestley's memory and to recognize achievements of today's men of science. The Award is a ceramic portrait of Joseph Priestley, discoverer of oxygen, and $1,000.

The 13th recipient of Dickinson's Priestley Memorial Award was Dr. I. I. Rabi, Nobel Laureate and Columbia University scientist noted for his research in nuclear and electronic physics. Described as "one of the developers of American physics," Dr. Rabi was honored for his contribution to the welfare of mankind through physics.

Dr. Rabi is noted for his molecular beam researches and for perfecting methods for precise measurement essential for the development and testing of atomic theory. He is a leader in the international search for peaceful uses of atomic energy, serving on the Science Committee of the United Nations and the Science Commission of NATO. Dickinson College is proud to salute this outstanding scientist of our age.

THE DICKINSON COLLEGE ARTS AWARD

Leonard Baskin, center, with President Rubendall and Dr. Gordon, Chairman of the Department of Fine Arts.

The Dickinson College Arts Award is presented to a person who has made an outstanding contribution in the arts of humanities. Recipients are chosen by a select committee of faculty and trustee members. The Arts Award, one of the most distinguished awards presented by Dickinson College, was instituted in 1958. Previous recipients include Robert Frost, Eero Saarinen and Dame Judith Anderson.

The receiver of this year's award was the noted Leonard Baskin, presently a professor of printmaking and sculpture at Smith College. Mr. Baskin received a Wedgwood medallion and gift of $1000 for his reputable achievements in the fine arts. This famous American artist has received degrees from various institutions of fine arts in New York, Paris and Florence, and has been honored with numerous prizes and fellowships. Mr. Baskin has had 21 one-man shows in America and Europe, and his works are presently in the permanent collections of more than 25 museums, including the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York.

COLLEGE GUESTS

Lecturers, musicians, dramatists, and performers of the many arts visit Dickinson College throughout the year, widening student and faculty experience and offering new viewpoints on well-known subjects. These guests are usually international or national figures, but several rising young artists also offer new talent.

Many times the programs coincide with topics currently being discussed in classes at the college, and they are always worthwhile entertainment in the interest of a full and rich liberal arts education.

Several organizations cooperate in bringing these guests to Dickinson: the Social Committee of the Student Senate; the Chapel Committee; the Religious Affairs Council; and the Cultural Affairs Committee of the Student Senate, with its chairman Professor Heber Harper. Student and faculty work together to plan this rewarding and enlightening program for Dickinson.

BONISTEEL YEAGLEY OBSERVATORY

What is perhaps the first multiple-telescope observatory at any American college or university was opened and dedicated here at Dickinson on December 13. Built at a cost of $50,000, most of the funds were provided in a gift from Roscoe O. Bonisteel of Ann Arbor, Michigan, a Dickinson Alumnus and trustee.

The Dickinson Observatory was conceived, planned, and the construction supervised by Dr. Henry L. Yeagley. It is housed in a box-like structure suspended from the roof of Althouse Science Hall and contains, in addition to one refracting telescope, three eight-inch and three ten-inch reflecting telescopes.

Dr. Yeagley commented that "the whole purpose of our observatory is to provide more people with an understanding of what the universe is like and how man observes it." To encourage the widest possible use of the observatory by the public, it is open for public viewing four nights each week throughout the year.

Dr. Yeagley assists Jo Sherman, one of his Physics students.

Superior academic achievement qualifies the student for the honor of membership in the Dickinson chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, the first chapter established in Pennsylvania.

With a minimum academic average of 3.75 at the end of their junior year in 1963, four students were elected into Phi Beta Kappa. At the end of the first semester of the senior year, students with a minimum average of 3.65 are tapped, while those with a 3.50 are eligible for membership at the end of the senior year.

The honorary leadership society for outstanding senior women at Dickinson College is the Wheel and Chain. Established here in 1924, the "Blue Hats" conduct the induction program for freshmen women in the fall, usher at cultural affairs programs and graduation, and help register guests at Homecoming and on Parents' Day. Members are elected for their participation in campus activities, service to the college community, demonstration of leadership ability, and on the basis of character and scholarship.

An award is presented each spring to the girl judged by Wheel and Chain to be the outstanding freshman woman.

STUDENT SENATE

Bruce Keiner, President

Pat Miller, Secretary

Jesse Judelle, Vice President

Bob Hindle, Treasurer

The Student Senate in the words of its constitution "acts as a clearinghouse for student ideas and opinions." It represents the student body in various student-faculty committees such as the Comprehensive Committee on Student Life, the Orientation Committee, and the Student-Faculty Judiciary Council.

This organization consists of one voting member and alternate from each fraternity and sorority. Also, one voting representative and alternate is elected for each fifty independent men and women. The Inter-Fraternity Council and the Pan-Hellenic Council also make their voice heard in this organization through the one voting member and alternate allotted them.

In addition, all campus clubs come under the jurisdiction of the Student Senate, and they must gain formal recognition by the Student Senate in order to receive any allotment from the student activities budget. With recognition also comes the use of the Daily Senator, the most effective communication media on campus.

STUDENT SENATE STEERING COMMITTEE

The Steering Committee collects information concerning campus organizations and regularly submits this to the students, so that they might take full advantage of the opportunities these organizations offer.

Row 1: J. McDowell, J. Judelle. Row 2: J. Howland, L. Davis, B. Ostrowski, K. Hershey.

NATIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Dickinson's chapter of the National Student Association is affiliated with the Student Senate and is the coordinating organ of the Campus Chest. In 1963 NSA sponsored a banquet honoring professors who had recently published articles. The group is under the chairmanship of Jesse Judelle.

CULTURAL AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

The Cultural Affairs Committee seeks both variety and high quality in its annual selection of cultural programs for the student body. This year's committee, representing each of the four classes, has attained its goal by securing such outstanding programs as the Canadian Royal Ballet, Margaret Webster, and Harrison Salisbury, authority on Russia.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

The Student Senate Social Committee is responsible for the coordination of all-college social functions. Composed of representatives from each fraternity and sorority and the independent organization, the committee schedules entertainment for Homecoming, Mid-Winter Ball, and Spring Formal. Highlighted at this year's Mid-Winter Ball were the currently popular Rooftop Singers.

S.R.A.C.

The Student Religious Affairs Council is the co-ordinating body for all religious activities and organizations on campus. Under the leadership of Leslie Davidson, President, and Chaplain Joseph R. Washington, representatives from each denominational group have selected excellent chapel speakers, sponsored a chancel play with the Bishop Players, and planned a trip to the United Nations.

FRESHMAN MEN COUNSELORS

Freshman men counselors are chosen from the junior and senior class on the basis of their abilities in leadership and the field of guidance. By winning the confidence and respect of his counselees, the counselor is able to help the freshmen with academic, social, and personal problems.

FRESHMEN WOMEN COUNSELORS

Each year the administration chooses a group of junior women to serve as freshmen counselors. The counselors live with the freshmen women and act as advisor and confidant for their counselee groups. Counselors are carefully selected after a series of tests and interviews designed to ascertain their maturity and their ability to cope with human problems.

ORIENTATION LEADERS

Adaptation of freshmen to the academic and social aspects of Dickinson is the purpose of the freshman orientation program. Two student orientation leaders and one faculty resource leader met with small groups of freshmen to discuss books read during the summer, regulations, and general information about the College.

Seated: A. Smith, M. Davey, K. Almstead.

YOUNG REPUBLICANS

The Young Republicans were very active in 1963-1964. Throughout the year, members of this club took part in local and state political affairs and tried to exert influence on the political thought of Dickinson students. The faculty advisor of the group is Professor John Light.

U.P.S.

The Union Philosophical Society, the nonpartisan political club on campus, coordinates the activities of the Young Democrats and Young Republicans. Through its participation in the Inter-Collegiate Conference on Government, it provides a forum where conflicting political views may be discussed.

Row 1: B. Nissly, J. Taylor, P. Kalisz, J. Carl, L. Davis, G. Cohen, H. Palitz. Row 2: H. Green, R. Meltzer, J. Stout, J. Barish, H. Miller, R. Smith, J. Nichols.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS

Although younger than its Republican counterpart, the Young Democrats play a significant role in political discussion on the Dickinson campus. At their meetings, the club has prominent speakers from the regular Democratic organization. The faculty advisor is Professor Heber Harper.

P.S.E.A.

The Pennsylvania Student Education Association is a pre-professional organization for students preparing for a career in teaching. At monthly meetings there are panel discussions, speakers, and films pertinent to the field of education. This year the Benjamin Rush chapter hosted the southern regional convention.

CONCERN

Concern is a young organization on campus, founded in 1962. Weekly discussions and programs are opened to students who are concerned with world problems, the individual's responsibility to society, and the attainment of world peace.

SOCRATICS

Founded in the fall of 1962, Socratics takes its name from one of the greatest "lovers of wisdom," Socrates. Socratics has brought guest speakers of high quality to this campus and visited other campuses to hear outstanding lectures. Each meeting of Socratics provides the participants with a forum in which to expound philosophical concepts.

Row 1: V. Simmons, J. Orent, E. Bone, L. Baker. Row 2: S. Kenderdine, J. Apperson, C. Potter. Row 3: P. Burtner, J. Thomas. Row 4: W. Woods, Dr. Ferre, S. Newberry. Missing: J. Jones.

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB

Through its monthly meetings the Psychology Club offers interested students an opportunity to receive guidance concerning both graduate work and job possibilities within the field. Guest speakers, field trips, and informal discussions are incorporated into their educational program.

MOHLER SCIENCE CLUB

The Mohler Science Club is composed of students interested in pursuing the sciences outside the classroom. At meetings of this cross section of the sciences, members broaden their understanding of modern trends in science through student discussions and lectures by guest speakers.

IRC

Founded in order to foster a better understanding of the people and problems of the world, the International Relations Club presents programs dealing with international issues. Delegates are sent to national conferences, such as the Mid-Atlantic Convention on Race Relations and the Model UN.

CAMPUS CHEST

Campus Chest is the annual charity drive which makes it possible for students on the Dickinson campus to give to other students in less fortunate areas. Money collected through Campus Chest is given to World University Service, Foreign Student Fund, National Scholarship and Service For Negro Students, and Crossroads Africa.

DEBATE CLUB

The Debate Club participates in inter-collegiate debates and invitational and open tournaments. This fall the club presented a debate to one of Carlisle's service clubs. Federal aid to higher education was the topic for this year's debates.

CLASSICS CLUB

Instituted only last year, the Classics Club has given the campus an environment for broadening knowledge of Greek and Roman cultural contributions, through lectures, discussions, debates, and student-organized plays.

BELLES LETTRES SOCIETY & PRESS

At the monthly meetings of the Belles Lettres Society, a faculty member or guest speaker addresses the group and participates in a discussion period following the lecture. This organization, third oldest college literary society in America, sponsors an outstanding cultural film each month and an arts festival in the spring.

The Belle Lettres Press encourages literary activity through publication of a student magazine, The Belles Lettres Revue. The Revue features the best of student and faculty fiction, poetry, and essays, and appears twice annually.

Seated: B. McCulloch, V. Plott, S. Herley. Standing: A. Glenn, D. Bedick, E. Bone.

MERMAID'S TALE

Telling the many-chaptered story of campus life at Dickinson is the function of The Mermaid's Tale. Through this summer publication, the freshmen are able to preview the college's major and minor student activities and organizations.

DAILY SENATOR

The Daily Senator, published Monday through Friday, is under the supervision of the Student Senate. Through capable editors, Jon Kintner and Alan Lottner, and reliable staff members, The Daily Senator was able to perform its function as news medium throughout the year, informing both students and faculty of important events.

Seated: K. Swam, L. Dixon. Standing: A. Lottner, S. Fishman.

MICROCOSM

Dickinson College
Carlisle, Penna.
June, 1964

Dear Dickinsonians,

We are all conscious of the deep effect our years at Dickinson have had upon us. The efforts that have gone into this book are an attempt to put into inert metal and impersonal paper a living reflection of that consciousness; to record the warm, vibrant, colorful experiences that have been superimposed one upon another. If this Microcosm seems a little less prosaic, a little more audacious than its predecessors it is because we found this spirit extant and accelerating at Dickinson - a harbinger, we think of a bright and purposeful academic future.

A new yearbook is like new wine. It can be enjoyed immediately if taken with a modicum of modesty. If indulged in imprudently it can be a heady concoction. Fortunately, age mellows it and those who read it so that "when it is old, thou shalt drink it with pleasure."

It is this pleasure that the staff held uppermost as it worked on these pages.

To that day in the years to come - Saluté!

The Dickinsonian

Chuck Lippy, managing editor

An outstanding campus newspaper, the Dickinsonian prints news of national and international significance, as well as campus news items. Editorials, features, student columns, and letters to the editor emphasize to some degree the controversial aspects of the news.

Three coordinate staffs work together to publish the Dickinsonian: the editorial staff, which writes and edits all copy; the managing staff, which writes headlines and sets up the paper for the printer; and the business staff, which manages finances, solicits advertising, and distributes the paper.

Under the direction of Mr. Frank Mueller, the Dickinson College Choir gave two major performances this year, mastering Antonio Vivaldi's Gloria and Felix Mendelssohn's St. Paul for their presentations. The choir renders enjoyment to both its members and its audiences through its musical endeavors.

The Band plays at Biddle Field during Homecoming luncheon.

GLEE CLUB

During the year, the Dickinson Glee Club upheld its well-earned reputation, performing at Thursday assemblies and presenting several concerts on campus, the Christmas program being a highlight of the year. The Glee Club continued under the able leadership of Frank Mueller, director; officers for this year were Harold Harris, President, John Arndt, Vice-President, Clement Reinke, Secretary, and William Spahr, Treasurer.

MERMAID PLAYERS

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE—Seated: C. Betts, R. Miller. Standing: B. Mettler, R. Koeln, J. Woodring.

The Belles Lettres Room in Denny Hall serves as headquarters for Mermaid Players, Dickinson's excellent drama organization. The members of the group may contribute either as part of a cast, by working on crew, or both, and participation in three productions is recognized by a pin, charm, or tie-tac. In addition, the Gould Awards are presented annually to the man and woman who have made outstanding contributions to the drama program.

Under the direction of Professor David Brubaker, Mermaid Players gives three major productions each year. "The Courageous Ones," a Russian drama by Gorki, was the opening play, followed by "Measure for Measure," a Shakespearean comedy.

THE COURAGEOUS ONE

"You're my dear, dear boy."

"But speaking in general, it isn't the smartest thing to do—getting married."

"Oh my, look what came out of the Samovar!"

MEASURE FOR MEASURE

"I should be guiltier than my guiltiness to think I could be undiscernible."

"Nay, I beseech you: mark his face well."

"By heaven, fond wretch; thou know'st not what thou speak'st."

FOLLIES

Penny Kingman sings "Said I to Myself, Said I."

The problem of a love triangle plus father and child.

"He has a beer belly just like his father."

The cast takes a well deserved bow.

Trial by hoax.

"But it's only a little baby, Sir!"

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE—Seated: J. Wilson, R. Koeln. Standing: P. Kingman, A. Hecker, B. Jones.

A musical satire of all aspects of campus life—students, faculty, administration, customs, institutions, mores, etc.—was enjoyed by all who saw last year's presentation of "What is all this Brightness?" The production, pictured on these pages, was written by Miss Penny Kingman, and tastefully lampooned D'son life among students, administration and faculty. Because of last year's huge success, we can only speculate on what the Follies Committee has in store for this year.

R.O.T.C.

Training officers for the United States Army is the major purpose of the Dickinson branch of the Reserve Officers Training Corps. Groups such as Pershing Rifles, A.U.S.A., and the Drum And Bugle Corps supplement basic training.

The Pershing Rifles (P.R.'s) comprise a trick drill team which performs on such occasions as Homecoming weekend and Armed Forces Day. The Association of the United States Army (A.U.S.A.) is a military honorary society for advanced military science students. The Drum and Bugle Corps (D. & B.) provides the necessary rhythm and esprit de corps for the marching cadets.

MID-WINTER BALL

The highlight of Mid-Winter Ball weekend was a concert given Friday evening by the nationally popular Rooftop Singers. The scene of activity then shifted to Alumni Gymnasium where Dickinson students danced to a variety of musical numbers by Joe Forte and the Originals.

MILITARY BALL

CHEERLEADING

The flash of red kilts and white sweaters adds not only color but spirit and enthusiasm to D'son football and basketball contests. Leading yells and cheers they engender excitement in the crowds and rally the teams on to victory. In addition to their cheerleading they hold pep rallies which enkindle a feeling of team spirit and togetherness in the student body. This year saw the advent of men cheerleaders which shows the growing interest in athletics at D'son.

FOOTBALL

Coach Seibert's Red Devils finished a very successful '63 Season by compiling a 5-2 record. This year was also the first year D'son had a J.V. team. Their 2-1 record points ahead to a successful '64 season. Coach Seibert, as well as line coach McElhaney and backfield coach Gobrecht deserve a lot of credit for fielding one of the best teams in the last 15 years.

The Red Devil Eleven opened their season with a disheartening defeat at the hands of Swarthmore at Biddle Field. The final score was 2-0. The lone Swarthmore score came late in the fourth quarter when Wayne Richert was tackled in the end zone on a roll out pass.

Danny Shaver crosses goal line escorted by Harry Harris.

The following weekend D'son traveled to Haverford and tallied a 12-7 victory. Shaver scored first in the second period but the follow-up point was blocked. The remaining score came on a pass from freshman quarterback Denny Wachter to Bill Penny.

Returning to Biddle Field the D'son Eleven massacred rival Franklin and Marshall by 35-0 score. The high point of the game came when Penny made a record breaking 89 yard punt return. Of the five touchdowns two were scored by Penny, one by Dallas Winslow on a pass from Harry Harris, one by Richert and one by John Ritchie. A conversion pass from Harris to Bob Averback and three kicks by Snyder completed the scoring.

On Parent's Day the Devils subdued a fired up P.M.C. team by a score of 21-13. Shaver caught a 68 yard aerial from Harris for the first score in the second period. Winslow intercepted a Cadet pass and scampered eighty-seven yards for the tally. In the fourth period Harris accounted for the final score on a seven yard run. Snyder completed all three conversions.

A much inspired Red Devil team traveled to Lebanon Valley the following weekend. L.V. succumbed to the D'son by a 34-8 margin. Rome, Shaver, Harris, Penny, and Averback scored the TD's. A pass from Richert to Penny accounted for one conversion, with Snyder completing only two extra points.

With the league lead almost in their grips the fired up Devils went south to Western Maryland but fell to a 12-0 defeat. Four intercepted passes demoralized the offense but the defense managed to hold the Green Terrors to two TD's, both coming in the first half.

The final contest of the year saw the red and white rout Johns Hopkins by a 46-7 tally. Penny scored three TD's, two on passes from Harris, Winslow and John Carl scored one each on passes from Wachter, Shaver scored one on a pass from Harris, and the final TD came when Snyder sneaked through the line.

SOCCER

The year 1963 will be remembered as the year soccer returned to Dickinson College. Through the efforts of Artur Lambo, Tony Herman (team co-captains) and Vaughn Pratt (coach) a group of twenty-five boys worked hard to form a recognized club. The spirit of the team was excellent throughout the season, but hampered by inexperience, the team could only post a 1-3 mark for the season. Outstanding contributors this year were Rumsay Young, Dick Lin, Hassan Abby, and Tam Wilson who will form the nucleus for next year's team. With 24 of 25 men returning for fall practice soccer fans can expect to see a much improved Dickinson eleven in 1964.

CROSS-COUNTRY

Joe DuCharme's cross country team extended the sport's winning streak to seven years by compiling a 7-3 record. This year's team was sparked by two freshmen, Duff Bagley and Dave Sleeper who placed consistently in dual meets.

For a second year in a row Gordon Faulkner was the team's star. He placed first in every meet, breaking his own college record on the Camp Shand course and setting a new mark on the Elizabethtown course. Gordon earned the MVP award for his accomplishments.

The important factor of depth on the team was provided by Bill Aldred, John Griswald, Jim Hatch, Mark Lauer, Bob Mumper, Mike Nemic, and John Podboy. Captain Bill White ran his last season this year and will be the only member not returning next fall.

At the end of their season the cross country team travelled to Philadelphia for the Middle Atlantic Conference race. Of the thirteen entries in the college division, the team placed fifth.

"Just where do you think you're going?"

Enjoying their most successful season in fifteen years and their best under Coach DuCharme, the D'son basketball team finished the 1963-64 schedule with an overall mark of 11-8.

In the Middle Atlantic Conference college division, the Red Devils wound up in a second-place tie with a 10-5 record. Despite a slow start the cagers came on strong and finished with three consecutive wins over Franklin & Marshall, Lebanon Valley and Johns Hopkins.

Strangely enough, a defeat was the outstanding game of the year. Playing against a highly-rated and powerful Gettysburg team, Dickinson battled the Bullets' tough squad down to the buzzer, only to lose on a game-winning shot in the last second of play.

The team's offense was characterized by overall scoring balance. Although Tony Hermann led the team with a 13.7 average, the four other starters, Rich Shapiro, Don Smith, Dallas Winslow and Dave Thomas, were close behind, all averaging in double figures. The outstanding individual highs for the year were Tony Hermann's 27 points against Lebanon Valley and Rich Shapiro's 21 rebounds against Wilkes-Barre.

WRESTLING

Under the tutelage of Coach Harold McElhaney in his first year of coaching at Dickinson, the Red Devil wrestlers turned in a very creditable record of 6 wins and 4 losses. The six wins included victories over: Johns Hopkins, Lebanon Valley, Muhlenberg, American University, Western Maryland, and Juniata. The team was made up of four seniors and six underclassmen, including: John Euler 123, Chuck Calhoun 130, Tom Hallam 137, John LeRoy and Joe Icenhower 147, Buck Rhody 157, 167, Paul Crawshaw 157, 167, Bob Holston 167, 177, Dave Waight 177, and Bill Costopoulos heavyweight. Outstanding grapplers were Dave Waight with an 8-2 record and fourth place in the MAC'S at 177, Joe Icenhower with a 5-1 record at 147, and Paul Crawshaw with a 7-2 record at 157 and 167. Coach McElhaney can look forward to another successful season in 1964-65 with a well trained nucleus of returning lettermen.

SWIMMING

The 1963-64 Dickinson swimming team led by captains Lance Rogers and Gus Bird proved to be one of the best in the school's record. After finishing the dual meets with a 5-4 record, the swimmers pulled an upset to win the Little Three Championship over Gettysburg and F&M. Then in the Middle Atlantic Championships the mermen took second place and came with 4 points of winning the College Division Championships. Eight school records were broken this year: freshmen Ken Freed, Skip Gray and Bill Moyer combined to set five of those records. Captains Rogers and Bird joined Freed and John Winfield to set the 400 yard free-style relay record.

SQUASH

Dave Drum in pre-game warm-up.

Overcoming both an extremely tough schedule and a lack of experience, this year's Dickinson squash team went on to post a highly respectable 4 win-5 loss record. Losing to such nationally top-ranked teams as Army, Navy and Penn, the racquetmen came back with victories over the York and Chambersburg Y.M.C.A.'s, the war college and a spectacular 5-4 win at the end of the season over Harrisburg Y.M.C.A., who had previously beaten the Devils 8-1. Their latest victory showed the considerable progress which Coach Stanley Nodder feels was the watchword of the season.

The 1963-64 season was the final varsity squash season at Dickinson. The team members and Coach Nodder deserve much credit and a salute from the student body for a job well done.

BASEBALL

In 1963, under Coach Evanson, the Red Devils compiled a record of 6 wins and 14 losses. Dan Ditenhafer, the team M. V. P., accounted for 4 of the 6 wins, and 7 losses. Dit had an outstanding E. R. A. of 2.10. Shortstop Tony Hermann led in hitting for the second successive year with a .315 average.

The pitching corps is the strongest point on the squad, led by captain Dave Ditenhafer, Ted Johnson, and Jim Hutchinson. Other returning starters are Tony Hermann as shortstop, and Dan Shaver and John Winfield in the outfield. Five lettermen lost to graduation were Dave Chapin, Reno DiOrio, Sonny Shoff, Terry Hancock, and Dick Warden. A number of freshmen look very promising, and if they can fill the gaps left by graduation, D'son could have a winning season.

LACROSSE

With more potential and more returning lettermen, this year's lacrosse team could possibly have its best record since its reinstatement two years ago. Last year's 2-4 record was not very successful. The team started its season against Hobart, ranked thirteenth in the nation, and received a severe trouncing. Catonsville, a small lacrosse club outside of Baltimore, journeyed up to Bidle Field to hand the Red Devils another licking. The two lone victories came against Bucknell and F & M. The stickmen lost a close game to Villanova by a single goal and ended the season by losing to previously beaten F & M.

With 8 of the first 10 starters returning and the able coaching of Patterson, Gobrecht and McElhaney, the season should prove successful. In addition there are many good freshmen who will supply depth to the team. Four new games have been added to the slate. These included Towson State, Lafayette, Washington College and Farleigh Dickinson. Through the efforts of goalie Dough McPherson, crease defenseman Mike Rapuano and attackmen Larry Bayley and Stu Lamb, the team looks forward to a good year.

TENNIS

Torpedoing a 47-game winning streak, the Diplomats from Franklin & Marshall broke the Devil's record-making skein and provided the only two losses in the netmen's 13-2 seasonal mark. MVP Whit Smyth, who captained the team, graduated along with the number two man John Harper. Solid support was received from Sherman Winters, Larry Rand and Rick and Ron DePetris. Coach Lou Hays has a dependable group for a nucleus this year in addition to the eligibility of transfer student Robin Baron.

Coach DuCharme's cindermen continued in their tradition of fine seasons with another outstanding record in 1963. Harvey Green and Don Neidig both enjoyed highly successful campaigns in the dashes. Pole vaulting was marked by consistent wins from the trio of Al Wicks, Nick Kempf and Dick Schreiber. Jerry Bole never ceased to astound the fans with his amazing leaps while George Whitwell and Mark Lauer gained valuable points in the hurdles and half mile. Field events saw fine efforts from Steve Slade, Gale Heishman and Harry Harris.

Led by graduated co-captains Tom Test and Craig Kerrick, the Devil linksmen finished their season with a 9-1 record. Playing regularly were Test, Kerrick, Tony Rogers, Gale Reish, Charley Markley and Steve Milligan. Brad Geist and Linn Myers also filled in during the season. At the MAC's the Dickinson quartet finished second to St. Joseph's with Markley capturing second medalist honors among 100 competitors. Their only loss was to Drexel, which they avenged in the MAC's when the Dragons took fifth to Dickinson's second.

Dickinson's newest varsity team, the Rifle Team, under the guidance of Sgt. Bloom of the ROTC department fired against some of the most skillful teams on the eastern coast this year. The disadvantage of not having a conveniently located range for spare time practice became evident as the season wore on. Led by co-captains Sandy Ganun and Rod Heefner, the riflemen fired a five wins, ten losses season. Other members of the top five firing team were Bob Reid, Gene Betts, and Mike Gerow. Regulars on the team who served as back up men were Steve Kelty, Joe Sullivan, Rick Hamilton, Chuck Ulmer, Dave Torrey, Bill Schaefer, Ed Kugler, Randy Best, and Barry Swartz.

CLASS OFFICERS

Elected for the leadership qualities they displayed early in the year, the freshman class officers planned several special events for their class. Among these events were a record dance on Homecoming weekend and another dance early in November.

"... and I'm 500 miles away from home."

"We love Mr. Blanchard."

“Oh, when the Frosh come marching in! Oh, when the Frosh come marching in! . . .” The Class of 1967 entered singing and cheering—full of the spirit and unity which kept us alive during Freshman Rules. Innovation became our byword, as we introduced such unique projects as a homecoming display and an informative Freshmen Handbook. The class also sponsored more Freshman mixers than ever before and introduced a loud cheer of “Thunderation to the Dickinson football congregation.” As Frosh we entered singing and cheering—and we made our exit with armloads of accomplishment.

“Aren’t these mixers great?”

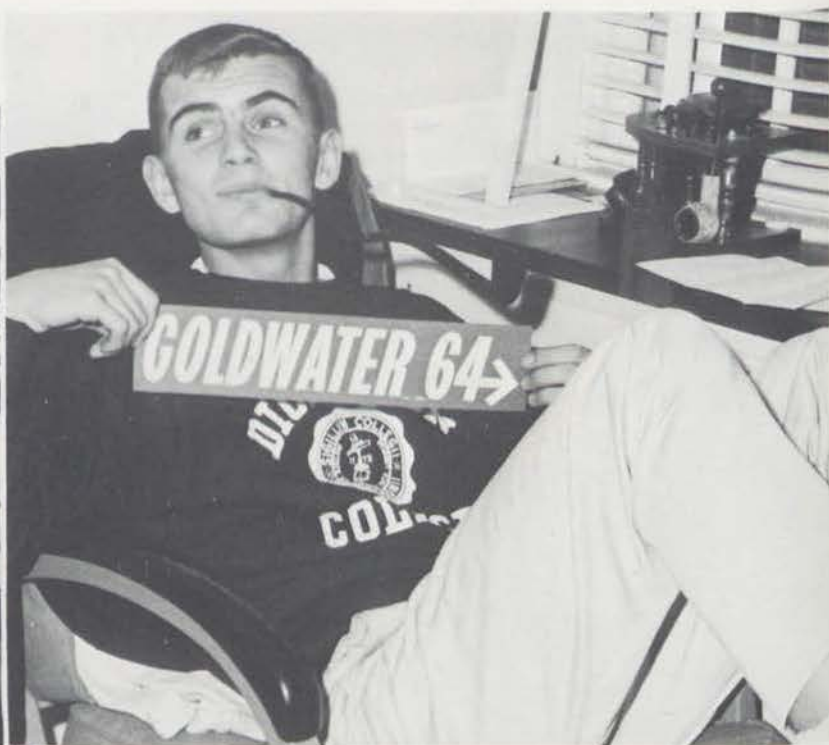

"Freshmanism"

FOREIGN STUDENTS

Nineteen foreign students, the largest number Dickinson has ever welcomed in one year, represent fifteen countries throughout Europe, the Far East, and Africa. The expanded geographical scope of the program has brought to the campus a comparable broadening of international thought and ideas.

Group-sponsored teas and desserts, as well as picnics and hikes in the spring, provided excellent opportunities for informal discussion. A series of panel debates, conducted in conjunction with the International Relations Club, were well received by both students and faculty.

Dickinson expresses its appreciation to our "international guests" for the fine opportunity we have had in new learning and new friendship.

INDEPENDENT MEN

Gibbs' answer to Lawrence Welk.

Gibbs House — Home Sweet Home.

The past few years has witnessed an astonishing transition among the Independent Men at Dickinson. The Independent Men, formerly a small and disinterested group, now comprises a large number of students with active interest in campus affairs. This year Independents headed such groups as The Union Philosophical Society, The International Relations Club, The Belles Lettres Press, THE MICROCOSM, and the Young Republicans' Club. Independent Men were also active on the executive boards of Concern, Mermaid Players, The Young Democrats Club, and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia.

To meet the need for an expanded social program in the 1962-63 school year, an enthusiastic group of Independents formed a committee and subsequently obtained an apartment on West High Street. The success of this project resulted in the acquisition of Gibbs House as a college dormitory for Independent Men during this year.

IFC AND COMMITTEE OF TEN

The Interfraternity Council led by President Doug McPherson serves to promote cooperation and good will among the ten national fraternities on the Dickinson Campus. Sponsoring a barbeque for the underprivileged children of Carlisle and helping the city build a nature center are two of the civic functions of IFC. Academically, a trophy for the pledge class with the most improved average has been established, and awards are presented to the outstanding Dickinson athletes of the year.

This year the rush rules have been revised and the Committee of Ten, composed of one representative of each house, has continued to enforce the rules.

The IFC has taken an active part in adapting fraternities to the "New Dickinson" by joining with the faculty and administration to establish social rules that will promote a healthy social and academic atmosphere at Dickinson.

The Beta Theta Pi fraternity was founded at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, in 1839. It has the distinction of being the first fraternity founded west of the Alleghenies. The Alpha Sigma chapter was established at Dickinson in 1879.

The principles by which the Betas strive to live are: unwavering friendship and fidelity, mutual support and assistance, and devotion to the development of scholarship, leadership, and character. The Betas plan to continue making their influence felt at Dickinson.

The trophy room.

Kappa Sigma was founded at the University of Virginia December 10, 1869, by several underclassmen there. They desired to bind their friendships and to cultivate their common aims and ideals while in college and to perpetuate the bond into later life. The success of their attempt is reflected in Kappa Sigma today. The fraternity has grown steadily since its founding and now has 126 chapters in the United States and Canada, ranking third in size among the national fraternities.

The Beta Pi chapter at Dickinson has always had the constant objective of making better men of its members and does this by encouraging participation in various campus activities.

Well, troops . . . !

You forgot to say grace again!

Where did you learn to dance? I went to Arthur Murray.

Phi Delta Theta was founded in 1848 at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, upon these three objectives: the cultivation of friendship among its members, the acquirement individually of a high degree of mental culture, and the attainment personally of a high standard of morality. Pennsylvania Epsilon has endeavored to uphold these standards in all phases of its associations on campus. In upholding them, Phi Delta Theta has grown to be one of the strongest members of the Dickinson community.

One of the first national and international Greek letter fraternities, Phi Delta Theta is one of the largest and strongest organizations with over 120 chapters in the United States and Canada.

"Say, have you heard about the 'New Dickinson'?"

Phi Kappa Sigma was founded in 1850 at the University of Pennsylvania as a national fraternity, and in 1854 as the first fraternity on the Dickinson campus.

The fraternity is based on the belief that strong fellowship and devotion lead to a spirited and united house and that, in turn, it will develop to the fullest extent the abilities of its members. Working hand in hand with the rest of the college community, Phi Kaps participate in all areas of campus activity.

With its executive, legislative and judicial powers, the Women's Interdormitory Council, formerly known as President's Council, formulates and enforces all dormitory regulations. The group is composed of the three officers of each of the two large dormitories, the presidents of the small dormitories, and three elected officers.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

Governing the four national women's fraternities at Dickinson College is the Panhellenic Council, composed of two representatives from each sorority. In addition to directing such annual activities as rushing and sorority formals, this year's group sponsored a Hootenanny to raise money for a scholarship for a deserving foreign student.

W.A.A.

Organizing and coordinating women's sports at Dickinson are the main functions of the Women's Athletic Association. W.A.A. regulates athletic competition between sororities and classes in basketball, volleyball, and softball, and also sponsors the women's inter-collegiate basketball team, the Red and White.

According to a system by which individuals earn points for participating in Aquacade, W.A.A. council, intramural and inter-collegiate sports, W.A.A. awards the Junior Blazer to women who have accumulated 100 points by the end of their junior year. Awards for participation in varsity sports and for intramural champions are presented at the annual W.A.A. banquet.

WOMEN'S HOCKEY

A 2-5 record marked the close of a disappointing season for the women's field hockey team. An experienced varsity and junior varsity should return next year, however, since there were only three seniors on this squad. Highlights of the year included the excellent play of goalie Kathy Kelley, fine stickwork by Patsy Hitchens and Carolyn Freas, and steady defensive play by Anne Tindall.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

The 1963 women's tennis team had a very successful season with six wins and one loss.

Patsy Hitchens, Anne Tindall and Nancy Carlson, who held the first three positions last spring, returned to the team this year. Patsy Hitchens has had fourteen straight wins in two years. In 1963 Anne Tindall had four wins and two losses. Patsy and Anne have played first doubles eleven times in two years, and lost only once (to Penn State).

Prospects look bright for the 1964 season as there are twenty-three candidates competing for the six starting positions.

PLEDGE FORMAL WEEKEND

Sorority Pledge Formal Weekend began Friday evening as each of the three pledge classes presented an original fifteen-minute skit to a large audience in the gym. On Saturday night pledges were formally introduced to the campus. Chi Omega's pledges whirled about the figures of "Alice in Wonderland" while the Phi Mus presented a striking Oriental atmosphere in "Shangri-lai." Flowers and fountains created the mood for Phi Phi's dreamy setting, "Just Spring."

CHI OMEGA

"Well, I'd say at least three more years." . . .

The Deltas of Chi Omega have completed their fifty-seventh year as a group of individuals participating enthusiastically in campus organizations and honoraries while striving for academic excellence.

This year, the wearers of the X and horseshoe have enjoyed the traditional football game with Phi Delt, a stimulating discussion with Chaplain Washington, Pledge and Senior Formal, Initiation Banquet, and many informal social functions with fraternities.

The social functions of the Cardinal and Straw have included the weekly children's reading hour at Bosler library, the Lydia Baird Christmas party, the Easter party for orphans with Kappa Sig and an all-campus Thanksgiving party at Crow to earn funds for the children of the Methodist Home.

Carol Heym introduces Chi Omega's pledges as they serenade Phi Psi.

PHI MU

Seminar for two?

Beta Delta of Phi Mu, founded at Dickinson in 1919, is now one of 86 national chapters. During the past year emphasis was balanced between fraternity education and fun.

Among the activities with other fraternities, the sisters played football with SAE, arranged a discussion on European politics with Kappa Sigma, and held a dessert with Phi Delta Theta.

Within their own group, the Phi Mu's held discussions on sororities, prepared pledge and scholarship dinners, and expressed themselves in modern painting.

PI BETA PHI

Since its arrival on campus in 1903, the Pennsylvania Gamma Chapter of Phi Beta Phi, through group activities and individual effort has attempted to further the ideals of both the college and the fraternity. This year saw a continued sense of friendship, unity, and purpose in all that we did.

This year the senior and junior wearers of the wine and blue were pleasantly surprised by their sophomores who held a "Pancake Paradise" for the Settlement School.

Helping to round out a program of community service, joined with Beta for an orphan party and with Phi Ep for a Christmas Party for underprivileged children. Highlighting the spring season this year was the Easter Egg Hunt and the baseball game held with Kappa Sig, the faculty, and their families.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

Drawn closely together by a true sorority spirit, the Zetas of Beta Beta chapter have completed another active and exciting year.

Social activities have played an important part in the year's program. Breakfasts, desserts, and teas, as well as formal dances, provided occasions to make new friends among the members of our college community.

Scholarship and leadership in campus activities have been emphasized along with the personal satisfaction gained through service. Upholding this ideal of service, the sisters helped a young cerebral palsy victim and raised money for national grants to crippled children and adults.

To Beloved "Red", Retiring President IFC Begins Strict Ru

By SUE KLINE

In June of this year, Gilbert Malcolm, Class of '15, will pass onto his successor the many tasks of a college President. "Red" will then take on the position of Provost of the College.

Many and varied have been the capacities in which our President Gilbert "Red" Malcolm has served Dickinson College since his undergraduate work at this institution.

Active Early Life

Malcolm made its appearance while he served in France during World War I. As co-editor with James Cain, author of the novels The Postman Always Rings Twice, Malcolm organized The Lorraine Cross, the overseas newspaper of the 79th Division. For a brief period Gilbert Malcolm left newspaper work, going to Philadelphia where he acquired a position with the Tax Audit Co. from 1920-22.

"Red" Malcolm relaxes in his office while relating an episode of his life to the DICKINSONIAN reporter.

SENATE SIT-IN — In protest of early closing hours, Dickinsonians remained studying in the library after hours.

 "I think your overall message is well-received, and I will do all I can to convince the administration that you are sincerely interested in extension of library hours," Dean Pease stated to the students participating in the library sit-in on Monday evening, Oct. 28.

Catastrophic Blaze Kindles Excitement Along With Stores

One of the most disastrous fires in the history of Carlisle obliterated two major department stores and caused extensive damage in the center of the business section Sunday night despite the efforts of 200 firemen and volunteers from the area.

Loss has been estimated at nearly a million dollars. Completely leveled were Bowman and Company department store, 10-16 South Hanover St., Carlisle's oldest department store, and McCroly 5 and 10-cent store next door.

The fire was discovered at 11:30 p.m. When firemen arrived 60 minutes later the building was a mass of flames. Fire Chief Ray E. Kelley said there was no chance to save the Bowman Building and firemen directed their efforts in 13 degree temperatures, the lowest of the season, to saving the McCroly and nearby stores.

Dickinson students and professors hearing the alarms could see the flames shooting almost 100 feet into the air. The blaze was only three blocks from Bowman Rush campus.

The Greeks Speak Board To Decide Frat Quad Question At Dec. 8 Meeting

With the granting of a $1,240,000 federal loan to the college for the proposed Fraternity Quad, many sentiments are being heard around the campus. According to George Shuman, Financial Vice President of the college, the major decision will be made at the December 8 meeting of the Board of Trustees.

Keeping this in mind we asked some of the fraternity men their views concerning the proposal.

 Dickinson swimmers were in a strong Delaware squad Saturday and saw the end to the 32 meet winning streak. They took the lead from the beginning and managed to win 4-1 for a 30-45 final score.

Actually the Devil winning streak covered a span of 36 consecutive meets. This number includes our tri-meets. Dickinson's last defeat came at the hands of Delaware in December of 1958.

Everson remained optimistic for the team's try during the remainder of the season. Everson was quoted as saying, "We knew it would end and go, but just didn't want it when the streak would end. I had to win this one to keep it going, since it was the toughest on the schedule, but we did it."

However, we have a lot of swimmers and I predict that by the season ends they will feel

Program To Span 10 Years, Based On Shay's Evaluation

The following is a report from the president on the special meeting of the board of Trustees April 14. In brief it presents the broad ten-year program of development for Dickinson College, based on the studies of the Shay Association.

According to the report, it "is the result of months of analysis and evaluation of a variety of possible approaches to the problem under review." All the following is direct quote from the report and a memorandum.

For additional endowment funds	$ 7,000,000
For new building construction, land acquisition, renovation of certain existing buildings and demolition of others	14,971,180
Total	$21,971,180

It is expected that of the funds needed for new construction, approximately $7,881,000 would be available through government loan if necessary. The balance would have to be raised by the College.

In considering the above ten-year Development Program, the following facts must be kept in mind.

Although fairly explicit for the first five-year period, the Program is flexible and allows for alternate procedures as the future unfolds.

For the first five-year period the objective will be to restrain

I.F. Resumes Play As Phi Delt, Crow Set League Pace

The I.F. basketball campaign picks up again this week after a three week break for exams and rushing. Having played only three games at the most the eleven teams are ready to pursue heavy schedules from here to the end of the season as they vie for the four playoff berths.

PHI DELT returns to action with a spotless 3-0 record. Although not tall they are consistent and can count on a fine horde of shooters (i.e. Craig Kerrick, Jim Jordan, and Steve Depp) to back up beltweather Jack Thomas who always performs well. However, their lack of height may cripple them against the tall Crows. Scoring ace Jim Phillips, bull-like Rog Smith, and high-leaping Charlie Wastika gave the CROWS a championship front line which we think will carry them to the top of the loop. THETA CHI
