BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Charles Francis Himes was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania on June 2, 1838 to William D. Himes and Magdalen Lanus. As a boy, Charles Francis attended the New Oxford Collegiate and Medical Institute in Adams County, PA, which was headed by Dr. M. D. G. Pfeiffer. He entered Dickinson College in the Spring of 1853 as a sophomore and became a founding member of the school's Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity. After graduating in 1855, Himes taught mathematics and natural sciences at the Wyoming Conference Academy in Wayne County, PA. A year later he moved to the Midwest to teach at public schools in Missouri and Illinois, and shortly thereafter returned to the east to accept a position at the Baltimore Female College. In 1860, at the age of 22, he was appointed Professor of Mathematics at Troy University in Troy, New York, teaching there for three years. Himes enrolled at the University of Giessen in the Hanover region of Germany in 1863, earning his Ph.D. after two years of study. Upon his return to the United States, he was named Professor of Natural Science at Dickinson College, a position which he would hold for three decades.

During his long tenure at Dickinson, Himes was instrumental in expanding the science curriculum and in arranging the construction of a new building dedicated to the science departments, the Jacob Tome Scientific Building, completed in 1885. He also helped establish a Scientific Society for the students in 1867. He served as Secretary and Treasurer for the Board of Trustees from 1868 until his retirement in 1896, and also served as Acting College President during the academic year 1888-89. In addition, Himes authored the first narrative history of the institution, A Sketch of Dickinson College, in 1879.

Besides his professional duties for the college, Himes was active in various personal pursuits as well. Among these many activities, he was a prominent member of the Hamilton Library Association in Carlisle, PA, and the Cumberland County Historical Society, even serving as president for a time. He was an honorary member of the Franklin Institute in Philadelphia, lecturing there on a regular basis, and was also a member of the American Philosophical Society and a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Beginning in 1901, he also served as president of the Pennsylvania German Society, an organization with which he had been actively involved since 1897. He was also an avid traveler, making numerous extended trips to Europe throughout his life.

Beginning in 1858, he developed a life-long interest in photography, studying and teaching the techniques of this newly evolving form of popular art and science. He published a work titled Leaf Prints: or Glimpses at Photography in 1868, an early exposition of some of his work, and in 1884 he began teaching photography during summer programs at Mountain Lake Park, Maryland. He shared his work and knowledge with other amateur photographers through various associations, becoming a member of the Pennsylvania Photographic Society in 1860, the Amateur Photographic Exchange Club in 1861, and, later in life, pursuing photographic efforts through the Hamilton Library Association.

Himes took an active interest in the study and writing of history as well, particularly focusing on subjects that related to Dickinson College and the Cumberland Valley. Through his writings on such figures as Colonel Robert Magaw and Judge Thomas Cooper (The Life and Times of Judge Thomas Cooper, 1918) and his lectures on a number of topics before the Cumberland County Historical Society, and even through his photographic work, Himes demonstrated his strong commitment to practicing, preserving, and promoting history.

Charles Francis Himes married Mary Elizabeth Murray, daughter of Reverend Joseph Alexander Murray and Ann Hays Blair, on January 2, 1868. Charles and Mary had two daughters, Mary Murray, born in December 1868, and Anna Magdalen, born in March 1880. Mary Murray married Thomas Eyster Vale in September 1905, and had two daughters, Mary Himes and Sarah Elizabeth. Anna Magdalen married Reverend George Valentine Metzler in March 1904 and had two sons, Charles Francis and George Valentine. At the age of fifty-six, Mary Elizabeth Murray died in Owaneco, Illinois on December 3, 1904 while visiting relatives. Charles Francis Himes died at eighty years of age at Johns Hopkins University Hospital in Baltimore on December 6, 1918.

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

The Charles Francis Himes Family Collection is housed in 34 document boxes, 6 oversized folders, and 569 photograph folders, and the materials are divided into 15 individual series which are titled and ordered as follows: Correspondence (Bound), Correspondence (Loose), Ephemera, Journals, Legal and Financial Papers, Miscellaneous, Newspaper Clippings, Pamphlets (Bound), Pamphlets (Loose), Photograph Albums, Research Notes and Writings, Speeches and Lectures, Artifacts, Oversized, and Photographs. Each series has been separately described and inventoried.

This collection primarily provides evidence of the personal and professional life of C. F. Himes, student, photographer, scientist, teacher, administrator, amateur historian and father. Also found in this collection is evidence of the lives of family members including, most notably, C. F. Himes' wife Mary and her father Joseph A. Murray. Information on Dickinson College is featured prominently throughout this collection through the close association of C. F. Himes with the institution during most of his life.

Beyond family and institutional history, this collection offers information on a number of social, political, economic, and historic topics. Some of these broader topics include post-secondary education in the latter half of the nineteenth century, south central Pennsylvania society, the history of photography, and nineteenth century travel.

COLLECTION INVENTORY

SERIES 1 - CORRESPONDENCE (BOUND)

Series 1, Correspondence (Bound), consists of 22 bound notebooks of press copies of letters written by Charles Francis Himes. Due to the fragile nature of the paper used to prepare the press copies, the bleeding of the ink, and simple aging, these copies of letters are often quite difficult to read and handle. Correspondence (Bound) is subdivided into two categories; personal correspondence of C. F. Himes, and correspondence by C. F. Himes acting as Secretary and Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of Dickinson College. The notebooks within these categories are then arranged chronologically.

The personal correspondence category includes 17 notebooks dating from 1871 to 1917. Subjects covered in these letters include family business as well as materials regarding C. F. Himes' personal and professional interests as a historian, photographer, scientist and professor. Orders for photographic equipment, questions about investments, requests for research assistance, and other such routine activities are to be found in these notebooks; relatively little correspondence of a truly personal nature is to be found here. Among these notebooks, some overlap of dates occurs between 1896 and 1910 as the personal correspondence from that period were further subdivided, presumably by C. F. Himes himself, into family business and personal business.

The correspondence by C. F. Himes acting as Secretary and Treasurer of the Board of Trustees at Dickinson College is comprised of 5 bound notebooks dating from 1869 to 1893. Most of the material within these notebooks concerns the academic and financial interests of Dickinson College. Correspondence involving scholarships, college publicity, financial support, college planning, and general information sharing are all to be found among these notebooks.

It is important to note that within all of these bound notebooks there is some overlap of C. F. Himes' personal correspondence and his correspondence as Secretary and Treasurer of the Board of Trustees at Dickinson College. It is also important to note that many of these notebooks are partially indexed at the front of each bound volume.

SERIES 2 - CORRESPONDENCE (LOOSE)

Series 2, Correspondence (Loose), consists of more than 600 personal letters. The correspondence in this series are arranged alphabetically by author (for women, by maiden name), and thereafter alphabetically by recipient, and then chronologically. Letters of unknown correspondents are filed at the end of the series.

The bulk of the letters in this series revolve around the personal relationships of the Himes and Murray families. The letters range in date from the early 1800s to the mid 1900s and cover various topics, including family affairs, daily activities, responses to personal inquiries, professional correspondence regarding education and photography, and research information not otherwise contained in the Research Notes and Writings series. By far, the majority of the letters in the series are written to, or written by, Charles Francis Himes. Of particular note are the letters to and from C. F. Himes during his student days at Dickinson College, letters from the Himes family while traveling abroad to the Murray's, and letters exchanged between C. F. Himes and his sister Helen.

SERIES 4 - JOURNALS

Series 4, Journals, is arranged alphabetically into three categories based on authorship (C. F. Himes, Mary M. Himes, and Joseph A. Murray), and then the journals under each author are arranged chronologically.

The journals of C. F. Himes are the most numerous and include personal diaries, travel logs, and "housekeeping" journals. Of these, the travel logs appear to be the most thoroughly and faithfully kept, providing detailed information on the many excursions to Europe taken by Himes throughout his life. The "housekeeping" journals contain information on day-to-day matters, but also include information on the activities of Himes' daughters, Mary and Anna.

The journals of Mary M. Himes include a recipe book, a school notebook, and a journal of original and copied poetry. Of particular note, however, is a journal (and its earlier draft) titled "Observations of a Tot Traveler," Mary's personal scrapbook of her trip to Europe with her parents in 1872. This scrapbook was compiled many years later, only being completed in 1905.

The journals of Joseph A. Murray, while labeled "Ministerial logbooks," contain a fair amount of information on personal and family matters as well as congregational matters.

SERIES 10 - PHOTOGRAPH ALBUMS

Series 10, Photograph Albums, is comprised of eight bound photo albums, presumably all compiled by C. F. Himes. The first two albums contain images reflecting Dickinson College around 1890, and the following three albums contain images of Himes' trip to Europe in 1890. It can be assumed that Himes took all of the pictures found in these five albums. (Copies of many of these images can be found among the loose photographs, designated PC 2000.1.) The remaining three albums all appear to contain images that Himes purchased and compiled, rather than photographs he took himself. The Souvenir Columbian Exposition album serves as a scrapbook for the 1893 World's Fair in Chicago at which Himes lectured. The two Souvenir Europe albums contain images of popular tourist attractions and artwork found on the European continent.

SERIES 11 - RESEARCH NOTES AND WRITINGS

Series 11, Research Notes and Writings, is arranged alphabetically into two categories based on authorship (C. F. Himes and Joseph A. Murray), and thereafter the notes and writings under each author are arranged alphabetically by topic (and then chronologically as necessary).

The notes and writings of C. F. Himes include his research on Thomas Cooper (including corrected drafts), photography, and his and his wife's family genealogies and histories. A fable titled "The Stupid Bear and the Crafty Old Fox," perhaps written for his grandchildren, is found among these writings. Also among Himes' writings is a copy of "A Sketch of Dickinson College" with extensive marginal notes, presumably in anticipation of a second edition.

The research notes and writings of Joseph A. Murray consist primarily of family history notes and biographical materials regarding local personalities. Also included is a draft of a letter to the Presbyterian Banner.

SERIES 12 - SPEECHES AND LECTURES

The majority of the speeches and lectures were prepared for college audiences, including C. F. Himes' Nisbet Day Address, Mary Himes' talk before Dickinson alumni, and J. A. Murray's Presidential Address to the Belles Lettres Society. Of particular note is the lengthy series of lectures delivered by C. F. Himes regarding his European travels.

AC 2000.1 - ARTIFACTS

Series 13, Artifacts, designated AC 2000.1, consists of 66 artifacts, including 49 photo-ceramic tiles, 9 other examples of photo-ceramics, 1 ribbon, 3 photo cases, and 2 glass plates and 2 plaster molds that are illustrative of Ives' Photographic Process.

The photo-ceramic tiles comprise the bulk of the artifacts, reflecting the hobby of C. F. Himes to emblazon photographic images onto ceramics. Notes regarding his experimentation with this process are to be found among his papers. These tiles come in a variety of sizes. In addition to these tiles, there are a few examples of Himes' use of this photo-ceramic process on china. The photo-ceramics are arranged alphabetically according to the following four categories: Dickinson College; Gleiburg Castle, Germany; Himes Family; and Illustrations from Children's Books. Individual artifacts are then arranged alphabetically by the title or subject of the image within these categories, with the date of the original image being included whenever possible. When the photo-ceramic image corresponds to an image in PC 2000.1, the Photograph Series, the image number has been indicated.

PC 2000.1 - PHOTOGRAPHS

Series 15, Photographs, designated PC 2000.1, contains photographs, film negatives, glass plate negatives, and glass plate positives. The majority of these photographic images were created by Charles Francis Himes. This portion of the collection is divided into seven categories arranged alphabetically: Dickinson College, Documents, Items Collected During Travels, Objects, People, Places, and Publications. These categories have been subdivided again when appropriate, and images are then ordered alphabetically by title and/or date, when applicable. The images in the series are each given their own corresponding number. If there is a negative, or even a glass plate positive, of the image it will be marked with the number of the image with the suffix "n" or "p," as necessary. The 500 distinct images in this collection are stored in 569 consecutively marked folders, with 165 folders containing negatives (mostly glass plate) and 4 containing glass plate positives. Though very few of the images were documented by date, circa dates have been applied as appropriate and specific dates provided whenever possible.

The Dickinson College category is comprised of 137 individual images taken of or in college buildings where the focus of the image is best described as the building or action being performed rather than the people in the image. This category is further subdivided into the following 13 categories: Athletic Field, Bosler Hall, Campus, Denny Hall II, East College, Lovers Lane, Metzger Hall, Old Gymnasium, Pagoda, South College I, South College II, Tome Scientific Building - Scientific Lab, and West College. The Campus category contains views of the Academic Quadrangle where no single building appears to be the focus of the image. The Tome Scientific Building - Scientific Lab category consists primarily of interior shots of the building, featuring the laboratory, experiments, equipment, and Priestley apparatus.

The Documents category is comprised of 69 images of papers that C. F. Himes photographed, with a view towards preservation, and is exclusive of the photographed documents used for publications. This category is further subdivided by topic when applicable. Many of the photographs are of the Dickinson College Board of Trustees Minutes, documents relating to his various research topics, and documents pertaining to the Himes family. This category also houses images of various German documents, local Civil War maps, and famous Americans, most notably George Washington and Benjamin Franklin.

The category entitled Items Collected During Travels contains 13 images which were most likely acquired by C. F. Himes during his trips abroad. Many of the images appear to be photographs of other photographs. Notable entries in this category are a photograph of the tomb of Dante Alighieri, various photographs of the gargoyles of Notre Dame, and a photograph of a portrait of Charles Dickens.

The Objects category houses 34 varied images including photographs of coins, a clay pitcher, microscopic views of animal anatomy, leaves, and samplers.

The People category consists of 124 images of groups or individuals in either candid or posed positions. The category is subdivided into the following categories: Dickinsonians, Himes

Family, Mt. Lake Park Groups, New Oxford Groups, Potomac Canoeists, Tome Scientific Building Groups, Miscellaneous Individuals, and Miscellaneous Groups. In ascertaining dates for many of the photographs, clothing styles were used to establish a circa date in five year intervals. A significant portion of the photographs and negatives in this category have been taken on the Dickinson College campus, though it was determined that the people were the focus of the image and not the buildings that may also be in view.

The Places category consists of 81 images of various buildings, towns, and country views, excluding Dickinson College. Often people appear in these images, though the focal point of the images is best described as the place in which they were photographed. This category is subdivided into six smaller categories: Carlisle, Pennsylvania; Giessen, Germany; Gleiburg, Germany; "Margaretta" (Lower Windsor Township, York County, Pennsylvania); Miscellaneous United States Views; and Miscellaneous Views.

The Publications category is comprised of 42 photographs taken for two books and two manuals. The books are Early History of the Presbyterian Church, Carlisle, Pa. by Joseph A. Murray, 1883 and A Sketch of Dickinson College by C. F. Himes, 1879. The two manuals are Blue Print Manual for Amateurs and Physical Laboratory Manual, both prepared by C. F. Himes. The photographs for the history of the Presbyterian Church of Carlisle make up the bulk of this category.
