BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Craig Robert Thomas was born in 1946 and diagnosed with cerebral palsy. At the age of seven, his parents, the Reverend and Mrs. Robert John Thomas, both graduates of Dickinson College, aided in the formation of a collection of autographed photos and letters of famous personalities of the day. This diversion resulted in national attention for young Craig, and as a result of this pursuit, he was named an honorary citizen of several states as well as a Junior Member of the United States Secret Service. Among other highlights in his brief life, Craig was appointed the first honorary cadet in the Civil Air Patrol in 1951, and in 1954, at the age of eight, Craig was one of the three United Cerebral Palsy poster children to be greeted by Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower. Craig died in 1957.

Craig's father, Rev. Robert John Thomas, grew up in northeastern Pennsylvania. He was a ranger in the Carlsbad National Park for two and a half years when he decided that the ministry offered greater opportunity for service. He graduated from Dickinson College in 1940. In 1941, he enrolled in Yale University's Divinity School and then went on to receive his S.T.B. degree from Boston University School of Theology in 1944. He served many churches in places from San Francisco to Gloucester, Massachusetts before settling in Syracuse, New York at the Rockefeller Memorial Methodist Church with his wife, Beatrice and son, Craig. Robert and his wife were extremely active with the United Cerebral Palsy Foundation. Rev. Thomas served as the chairman for its National Convention the same year that young Craig was the poster boy, and Mrs. Thomas also was active with the Cerebral Palsy Auxiliary of Syracuse.

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

The Craig Robert Thomas collection is housed in two document boxes, one oversized box, and 893 photograph folders, and is arranged into the following three categories: Correspondence, Photographs, and Miscellaneous. The collection consists almost entirely of the letters and photographs from the numerous celebrities who sent their warm wishes and personal regards to Craig Robert Thomas.

The Correspondence portion of the collection is arranged alphabetically by the author of each letter. To the right of each personality's name within the inventory listing of correspondence, it is indicated in parentheses if there is also a photo of that person within the Photograph section of the collection.

The Photograph section of the collection is arranged alphabetically by name. For those photos which are autographed, the notation "PS" appears beside the personality's name in the inventory listing. Several large photographs are housed separately in an oversized box, designated OC 2000.7. Again, these photos are arranged alphabetically by name, and again the inventory will indicate if the photo is autographed.

The Miscellaneous section of the collection consists of a single item, an invitation to the 1957 Inauguration of President Dwight D. Eisenhower. Due to its size, this item is housed in the oversized box designated OC 2000.7.

A full index to the personalities represented in this collection can be found after the inventory listing.
