BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Julius N. Proeschel was born in 1834 in France. In 1853, Proeschel was employed by the Reverend Doctor John McClintock as Secretary and Translator, and served as a major collaborator in the work of preparing the Cyclopaedia of Biblical, Theological and Ecclesiastical Literature. From 1860 to 1864, Rev. Dr. McClintock was in charge of the American Chapel in Paris. It is possible that Julius Proeschel was married to an American woman named Margaret, and was also involved with the chapel. Proeschel and Emory McClintock, John's son, were lifelong friends.

In either 1869 or 1870, Julius and his family moved to the United States. The family settled in Milwaukee. Julius's mother V. Proeschel, brother Henri Proeschel, and sisters, Amelie Proeschel and Lily Proeschel Fortier, corresponded with their American kin. Julius Proeschel and his wife had at least three daughters: Lily, Margaret, and Maria Augusta, who died in infancy. Lily Proeschel married Matthew Miller in 1889, but died in 1891. Margaret Proeschel married John Sanford Batchelor, a dentist, around 1892.

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

The Proeschel Family Collection is comprised entirely of correspondence and is housed in one document box. The Correspondence is divided by recipients: John Sanford Batchelor, Augusta McClintock Longacre, Julius N. Proeschel, Lily Proeschel (Mrs. Matthew Miller), and Margaret Proeschel (Mrs. John S. Batchelor). Most of the letters are from family members, but among the letters received by Julius N. Proeschel are a number of letters from Reverend John McClintock and his son Emory. Also note that a number of letters are written in French. All letters are listed in chronological order under the recipient's name with undated letters coming first.
