BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Walter Linwood "Lynn" Crowding was born on October 4, 1894 in Kent County on the Eastern Shore, Maryland. The son of Walter Wilson and Alice Maude Roseberry Crowding, he grew up on the family farm, receiving all of his public education in a one-room school in Still Pond, Maryland. At age 16, he moved with his family to Camden, New Jersey, where he worked at a variety of jobs in order to put himself through Strayer's Business College. Upon graduating in 1916, he attended night classes in theology at Temple University for two years. He then became a Railroad Y.M.C.A. secretary and, among other assignments, served as a morale officer on troop trains during World War I.

During these years, Crowding became convinced of his calling to the ministry and set out to acquire the necessary education. Fearing he might never have enough money for both college and theological school, he began work towards a bachelor of divinity degree at Drew Theological Seminary. He then entered Dickinson College and earned his bachelor of arts and master of arts degrees in 1925. In June 1946, Dickinson College awarded him the honorary doctor of divinity degree. While at the College, he was a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

On June 23, 1928, Lynn married a school teacher, Catharine Susan Frederick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew P. Frederick of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. The couple had three daughters, one of whom was adopted.

Crowding joined the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Methodist Church in 1922 and was ordained two years later. While attending Drew he served two appointments in New Jersey, and during his student days at Dickinson he served as minister of the West Fairview-Summerdale and Dillsburg-Wellsville churches. He then successively held pastorates at Calvary Church in Berwick, Trinity Church in Harrisburg, Lewisburg, Waynesboro, First Church in Altoona, Pine Street in Williamsport, and Shippensburg. It was as the pastor at Shippensburg that he retired in 1963. He was also superintendent of the Sunbury District from 1945 to 1951.

Serving seven years as conference secretary and a number of years as dean of the Epworth League Institute at Newton Hamilton, Crowding was a member of various conference boards and commissions including the Boards of Ministerial Training, Education, Missions, and Trustees as well as the Commission on World Service and Finance. His interest in furthering ecumenical efforts led him into active participation in local church councils as well as in the Pennsylvania Council of Churches.

During the conference year 1957-1958, he acted as an exchange minister in Stockport, England. While pastor at Pine Street Church, he was a member of the study seminar to the Middle East. In 1961 he returned to England to take part in a preaching mission.

Upon his retirement in 1963, the same year in which he attended the Civil Rights March on Washington, Crowding became a part-time associate at Allison Church in Carlisle, sharing in the pastoral, educational, and pulpit ministry until 1969. After his second retirement he remained active in the work of Allison Church, in the ecumenical movement, and in community programs. Walter Lynn Crowding died at his home in Carlisle on June 23, 1980, after a short series of illnesses.

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

The Walter Linwood Crowding collection is housed in six document boxes and has been divided into four series: Correspondence, Essays, Sermons, and Miscellaneous. The collection, donated by wife Catharine Crowding, contains sermons and essays which represent Walter Crowding's lengthy career as a Methodist pastor in Pennsylvania. The Correspondence series includes a single letter from a member of the Carlisle community voicing his concerns about the joining of the EUB and Methodist Churches. The Essays section contains fifteen essays, including those submitted during Crowding's student days, particularly in the Drew Seminary. The Miscellaneous series includes a number of discussion and sermon outlines given by Crowding during his service at the Ecumenical Church. The overwhelming bulk of this collection, the Sermons series, is arranged alphabetically by sermon title. When known, the date of the sermon and the Bible passage from which the sermon is derived are listed after the sermon title. The series includes nearly 850 individual sermons. An appendix follows the collection inventory and serves as an index to those sermons which are identified by the Bible passage which they address.
