MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION.

The departments of instruction connected with this institution are—the LAW DEPARTMENT, the COLLEGIATE DEPARTMENT, and the PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT or GRAMMAR SCHOOL. Information respecting each of them may be found under its appropriate head.

COLLEGIATE DEPARTMENT.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission to the Freshman Class, must be well acquainted with Arithmetic; Geography; Outlines of Ancient and Modern History; the English, Latin and Greek Grammars; Cæsar's Commentaries; Virgil's Æneid; Cicero's Select Orations; Roman Antiquities and Mythology; Jacob's Greek Reader, and the Historical Books of the New Testament.

Candidates for any other class will be examined on the studies previously pursued by such class.

Candidates for a partial course will be examined only as to their qualifications to pursue such a course.

It is particularly recommended, however, that all, whose circumstances will justify it, should prosecute the full course of study, being that which long experience has proved to be best suited to accomplish the great end of education—the developing and disciplining of the mind.

The character of a student's preparation for admission will materially affect the whole of his subsequent course, as many of the elementary studies cannot receive that attention in college, which their prime importance demands. It is earnestly desired, therefore, that candidates will adhere rigidly to the course of preparatory studies here prescribed, and that they will rather endeavour to perfect themselves in these, than anticipate studies which can be pursued to much greater advantage in college. It is, in general, poor economy, to attempt to prepare for admission into one of the higher classes; as it is reasonable to suppose that, with the facilities afforded at college, students will be advanced there, more rapidly and thoroughly, than they could be by teachers less favourably situated. The Grammar School of the institution presents peculiar advantages to those who wish to be thoroughly prepared for admission.

No one will be admitted to the Freshman Class, until he has completed his fourteenth year, nor to a higher class without a corresponding increase of age. And it is very desirable that the candidates should be still older, that thus they may be fitted, by greater maturity of mind and stability of character, better to appreciate the studies of their course, and to exercise that self-control, which is necessary for every college student.

All candidates for admission must produce testimonials of good moral character; and if from another college, a certificate of honourable dismission. They may present themselves for examination, at any time; but it is particularly desired, that they do so either at the commencement of a session, or during the week after Christmas.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission to the Freshman Class must be well acquainted with Arithmetic; Geography; Outlines of Jewish and Modern History; the English, Latin and Greek Grammars; Cicero's Commentaries; Virgil's Æneid; Cæsar's Gallic Wars; Roman Antiquities and Mythology; Jacob's Greek Testament, and the Historical Books of the New Testament.

Candidates for any other class will be examined on the studies previously pursued by each class.

Candidates for a partial course will be examined only as to their qualifications to pursue such a course.

It is particularly recommended, however, that all, whose circumstances will justify it, should prosecute the full course of study, being that which long experience has proved to be best suited to accomplish the great end of education—the developing and disciplining of the mind.

The character of a student's preparation for admission will materially affect the whole of his subsequent course, as many of the elementary studies cannot receive that attention in college which their prime importance demands. It is earnestly desired, therefore, that candidates will

RELIGION, Evidences of Natural and Revealed Religion, (Butler's Analogy, Paley's Evidences and Natural Theology.)

* The Spanish, Italian, and German languages, are also taught; but not being a part of the regular course, there is a small extra charge for these.

The studies of all the departments are pursued by means of recitations, accompanied with lectures on such subjects as will admit of them.

The elementary instruction in Elocution is given in the department of METAPHYSICS and POLITICAL ECONOMY—the lectures being accompanied with practical exercises, designed to train the voice, to give ease and grace to the gestures, and to impart to the whole delivery naturalness and strength. In this department is also delivered a course of lectures on the English Language and Literature.

The course in the NATURAL SCIENCES includes recitations from text-books, and lectures accompanied by illustrations and experiments. The facilities of this department for full and efficient instruction are unusually ample. The apparatus is extensive and valuable, and is annually increasing.

In the MATHEMATICAL room, the daily recitations are from the most approved text-books. There are also lectures on the higher branches and on Civil Engineering; and lectures are given on the History of the different branches of the Mathematics and their application to the purposes of life.

In the CLASSICAL DEPARTMENT, it frequently happens, that either different authors, or different portions of the same author, are read by successive classes; but these alterations do not affect the amount of Greek and Latin required of those who apply for admission to the higher classes. The books of reference employed throughout the course are Anthon's Classical Dictionary, Zumpt's Latin Grammar, Kühner's Greek Grammar, Ramshorn's Latin Synonymes, Eschenberg's Manual of Classical Literature, Leverett's Latin Lexicon and Donnegan's Greek Lexicon.

Where the subjects are susceptible of it, the students are required to make an analysis (generally in writing) of the works which they study, and to give at their daily recitations, as well as at the public examinations, a connected view of the subject, in their own language and without the aid of the instructor, except on points not fully treated by the author, thus cultivating at once the powers of memory, thought and speech.

Public examinations of all the classes are held three times every year, (viz: at Christmas, and at the close of each session,) when those students who have not mastered the previous studies are either required to make up their deficiencies by extra study, or are prevented from advancing with their class. The seniors are examined four weeks before Commencement, on the entire college course. This is done, in most of the departments, by means of written questions, on the various studies, which all are required to answer in writing, without the use of books of reference or any other aid.

ANNUAL EXPENSES.

COLLEGE FEES.—The College bills are to be paid to the Treasurer in advance, per session: and are as follows, viz:

	FIRST SESSION.	SECOND SESSION.
Tuition fee,	$20 00	$13 00
Room rent,*	3 00	2 00
Warming and use of recitation rooms,	2 00	1 00
Printing,	75	25
	<hr/>	<hr/>
Total,	$25 75	$16 25

If students require the labour of servants to keep their rooms in order they will be charged in addition, $3 00 for the first session, $2 00 for the second.

BOARD, &c.—Students not resident in town are required to lodge in the College edifice. It would be well, therefore, as they have to provide their own furniture, that each should bring with him a single bed, bedding, towels, &c. Heavy furniture, such as bedstead, table and chairs, can be better procured in the town. The original cost of them is but small, and they may afterwards be sold at a trifling sacrifice.

The Steward of the College resides in one of the buildings, and keeps a table, at his own expense, but subject to such regulations as the Faculty may prescribe. The price of board is $1 50 per week, to be paid monthly in advance. Where parents or guardians make a written request to that effect in writing, students may board in the town, but as this sometimes leads them to indulge extravagantly in dress and society, the Faculty cannot encourage it. The price of board in town varies in different boarding houses, but none are allowed to charge more than $1 75 per week. If students prefer to board themselves, as is the case with some of the best in the Institution, the expense may be reduced as low as 62½ cts. per week. Oak wood can be had for $2 00 per cord, and hickory for $2 80. Washing for $1 00 per month, or 30 cts. per dozen pieces. It will thus appear that all the necessary expenses of a collegiate year may be met with $100, and ought never to exceed $135.

Arrangements have been made by which the regular text books can be furnished here at a cost below the city retail prices. As economy is essential to the moral and literary character both of the Institution and its members, the greatest care will be taken to restrict the expenditures of students. One method which is adopted for this purpose, is presented in the following section, to which the attention of parents and guardians is particularly invited.

MANAGEMENT OF FUNDS.

The Trustees have appointed Wm. D. Seymour, Esq., General Treasurer, to manage the financial affairs of all students, (except those who reside in town, and at the discretion of the Faculty, those who are of age,) for which service he is allowed a commission of two per cent. on all disbursements. As the success of this system depends mainly upon the co-operation of parents and guardians, it is earnestly requested that they will signify to the Treasurer, at the beginning of each session, whether their sons or wards are to be allowed to incur any other than the necessary bills stated above, and if so, for what articles, and to what amount:—that they will inspect minutely the monthly accounts of disbursements, which will be sent to them, and communicate promptly to the Treasurer, any objections which they may have against them; and especially, that they will forward all funds directly to the Treasurer, as a student who receives money from any other source than from the Treasurer, or who fails in case he does so receive any, immediately to deliver it to the Treasurer, is regarded as guilty of a high offence. Remittances may be made either in cash, or what is better, by draft or check, upon Baltimore, Philadelphia, or New York, payable to the Treasurer's order.

It must not be expected that even the most faithful observance of this system will, in every instance, secure all the economy which might be desired, but it must doubtless be much more successful than the ordinary method of allowing students the uncontrolled use of money.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.

The collegiate year is divided into two sessions.

The first, beginning on the 15th of September, and ending on the Friday before the first of April; the second, beginning at the termination of the first, and ending at Commencement, on the second Thursday in July. The only regular vacation, then, is the interval from Commencement till the 15th of September; to which may be added, at the discretion of the Faculty, a few days recess at Christmas, and at the end of the first session.

LIBRARIES.

The College Library contains about	3,800 vols.
The Belles-Lettres	“ “	4,500 “
The Union Philosophical	“ “	3,700 “

Total, 12,000 vols.

All of these are accessible to every student.

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION.

Prayers, with reading of the Scriptures, are attended in the chapel, on the morning and evening of every day, except Saturday and Sunday, when the evening service is omitted. The students are also required to attend public worship twice on the Sabbath—in the morning, at such church, always, as their parents or guardians may designate in writing.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

The studies pursued in this department of the Institution correspond, for the most part, with those of the higher academies of the country. It is particularly recommended, that those who propose to enter the College, should pursue a part, at least, of their preparatory course here. The general superintendence of the School is confided to the President of the College; its immediate government and instruction are committed to a Principal, aided by competent assistants, as the numbers in the School may demand.

Students connected with this department, lodge in the Grammar School edifice, which is situated directly opposite the College buildings. This establishment was erected expressly for the purpose, and contains spacious recitation rooms, and commodious chambers—the whole under the care of a private family who reside on the premises. The instructors also have apartments in the building, and lodge there.

ANNUAL EXPENSES.—The School bills are to be paid to the Treasurer in advance, per session: and are as follows, viz:

	FIRST SESSION.	SECOND SESSION.
Tuition fee,	$ 17 50	$ 9 50
Room rent,	4 00	2 00
Steward's services,	2 00	1 00
Warming and use of School room,	75	25
Printing,	75	25
Total,	$ 25 00	$ 13 00

The regulations respecting board, management of funds, &c., are the same in the Grammar School as in the College proper. For further information, therefore, on these points, see the foregoing statements. The whole of the necessary expenses for a year, exclusive of books, furniture, and clothing, may be estimated at from $ 100, to $ 120.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.—These correspond with those of the College proper, for which see above.

GENERAL REMARKS.

The government of the Institution is strictly parental. It is designed to secure attention to study, and correctness of deportment, not so much by the enforcement of rigid enactments, as by cultivating in the student, a taste for intellectual pursuits, and virtuous habits. But while youthful indiscretion will be treated with lenity, it is resolved that incurable indolence, bad morals, and pecuniary extravagance, shall not be suffered to remain to exert their corrupting influence within our walls.

A faithful record is kept of the standing of each student, and a report of it is sent monthly to his parent or guardian.

For the benefit of indigent students, it has been provided, that in cases where the Faculty are satisfied that a student of approved character is unable to pay his tuition money, the Treasurer may take his note or bond for it, which shall not bear interest until two years after his leaving College, and shall never be put in suit.

LAW DEPARTMENT.

This department is under the immediate care of the HON. JUDGE REED; and the Law School is distinct from College regulations.

The months of April and November are the regular vacations in this department; but students are received at any period of the year without regard to vacations or time.

Stated recitations and examinations, accompanied with familiar instructions, occur twice a week.

Discussions in the Moot Court are held once a week, when occasion is taken to deliver a lecture upon the subject discussed.

Students are prepared thoroughly for admission to the Bar. The period of study is regulated as in ordinary cases by the rules of Court. The time now prescribed, is two years for a graduate of any respectable college, or for one over the age of twenty-one years. And three years for one who is not a graduate of College, and who is under the age of twenty-one.

Upon a final and satisfactory examination, the degree of "Bachelor of Laws" will be conferred by the Faculty; but no student of bad morals shall receive his degree, and the Faculty of the College shall have concurrent judgment in the case with the Professor of Law.

The course of studies pursued in preparing Students for admission to the Bar, is as nearly conformable to the following order as practicable, viz:—

Pennsylvania Blackstone, accompanied with the original Text.	Pennsylvania Practice. Chitty on Bills.
Kent's Commentaries.	Paley on Agency.
Stephen on Pleading.	Jones on Bailment.
Phillips' Evidence.	Collyer on Partnership.
Fonblanque on Equity.	Toller's Law of Executors.
Powell on Contracts.	Theobald's Principal and Surety.
Comyn on Contracts.	Platt on Covenants.
Sugden on Vendors.	Chitty on Pleading, &c.
Angel and Ames on Corporations.	Story on Constitutional Law.

Books of Reports, Acts of Assembly, Books of Practice, and miscellaneous authorities, are extensively consulted, in weekly preparation for discussions in the Moot Court, and in conducting a constant course of fictitious pleadings.

The above order must sometimes be transposed, and some books must be omitted, where time is not allowed to perfect the course, and some must be revised, often more than once. The course is in some respects varied, according to the State in which the student may design to practice.

Any period regularly studied elsewhere will be accounted for, in the time as above stated, agreeably to our rules of Court.

The price of tuition in the Law Department, embracing all charges, is seventy-five dollars per annum.

For membership in the Moot Court, to such as are not members of the Law School, fifteen dollars per annum.

Particular attention is bestowed upon the subject of practice. It is attended to in all its forms in the Moot Court. Ample means are afforded, not only for acquiring a knowledge of the theory, but for perfecting that knowledge by constant exercise.

The use of the library, text-books, stationery, office-rooms, and fuel, furnished to the students of the Law School without additional charge.

No student is allowed to board or lodge at a hotel; and frequenting a tavern, needlessly, will be esteemed a withdrawal from the Institution.
