MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION.

The departments of instruction connected with this institution are—the COLLEGIATE DEPARTMENT and the PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

COLLEGIATE DEPARTMENT.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission to the Freshman Class, must be well acquainted with Arithmetic; Simple Equations in Algebra; Geography; Outlines of Ancient and Modern History; the English, Latin, and Greek Grammars; (McClintock and Creech's First Books in Latin and Greek;) Caesar's Commentaries, (two books); Virgil's Æneid, (four books); Xenophon's Anabasis, (two books); Roman Antiquities and Mythology; Greek Reader, and the Historical Books of the New Testament.

Candidates for any other class will be examined on the studies previously pursued by such class.

Candidates for a partial course will be examined only as to their qualifications to pursue such a course.

It is particularly recommended, however, that all, whose circumstances will justify it, should prosecute the full course of study, being that which long experience has proved to be the best suited to accomplish the great end of education—the development and discipline of the mind.

The character of a student's preparation for admission will materially affect the whole of his subsequent course, as many of the elementary studies cannot receive that attention in college, which their importance demands. It is earnestly desired, therefore, that candidates will adhere rigidly to the course of preparatory studies prescribed, and that they will rather endeavor to perfect themselves in these, than anticipate studies which can be pursued to much greater advantage in college. It is, in general, poor economy to attempt to prepare for admission into one of the higher classes; as it is reasonable to suppose that, with the facilities afforded at college, students will be advanced there more rapidly and thoroughly than they could be by teachers less favorably situated. The Grammar School of the Institution presents peculiar advantages to those who wish to be thoroughly prepared for admission.

No one will be admitted to the Freshman Class, until he has completed his fourteenth year, nor to a higher class without a corresponding age. And it is very desirable that the candidates should be still older, that thus they may be fitted, by greater maturity of mind and stability of character, better to appreciate the studies of their course, and to exercise that self-control which is necessary for every college student.

All candidates for admission must produce testimonials of good moral character; and if from another college, a certificate of honorable dismissal. They may present themselves for examination at any time; but it is particularly desired that they do so either at the commencement of a session, or during the week after Christmas.

Hebrew—Roediger's Gesenius' Grammar, by Conant; Hahn's Biblia Hebraica; Gesenius' Lexicon.

The studies of all the departments are pursued by means of recitations, accompanied with lectures on such subjects as will admit of them.

The instruction in PHILOSOPHY AND ENGLISH LITERATURE is given partly by recitations in History, Rhetoric, Logic, Political Economy, Metaphysics, and Constitutional Law; and partly by Lectures on the English Language and Literature, Universal History, and the History of Philosophy. Practical exercises in writing and speaking also receive special attention in this department.

The course in the NATURAL SCIENCES includes recitations from text books, and lectures accompanied by illustrations and experiments. The facilities of this department for full and efficient instruction are unusually ample. The apparatus is extensive and valuable, and is annually increasing. The Cabinet of Natural History is abundantly supplied with numerous specimens illustrative of the various productions of the globe.

In the MATHEMATICAL room, the daily recitations are from the most approved text books. There are also lectures on the higher branches and on Civil Engineering; and lectures are given on the History of the different branches of the Mathematics and their application to the purposes of life.

In the CLASSICAL DEPARTMENT, it frequently happens, that either different authors, or different portions of the same author, are read by successive classes; but these alterations do not affect the amount of Greek and Latin required of those who apply for admission to the higher classes. The books of reference employed throughout the course are Anthon's Classical Dictionary, Zumpt's Latin Grammar, Kuehner's Greek Grammar; Ramshorn's Latin Synonymes, Eschenberg's Manual of Classical Literature, Andrews' Latin Lexicon, and Liddell and Scott's Greek Lexicon.

In the department of MODERN LANGUAGES, the recitations are so conducted that the student applies his knowledge as he advances; and the conversation between the Professor and the class is, at an early stage of the course, carried on in the language which the class is studying. The books of reference used are Surene's French Pronouncing Dictionary, Abrege du Dictionnaire de l'Academie Francaise, Heyse's German Grammar, Adler's German Dictionary.

Where the subjects are susceptible of it, the students are required to make an analysis (generally in writing) of the works which they study, and to give at their daily recitations, as well as at the public examinations, a connected view of the subject, in their own language and without the aid of the instructor, except on points not fully treated by the author, thus cultivating at once the powers of memory, thought and speech.

Public examinations of all the classes are held thrice every year, viz: (at the close of each term,) when those students who have not mastered the previous studies are either required to make up their deficiencies by extra study, or are prevented from advancing with their class. The seniors are examined four weeks before Commencement, on the entire College course.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.

The college year is divided into two sessions, the first beginning on the 15th of September, and ending on the Friday before the 1st of April; the second beginning at the termination of the first, and ending at the Commencement on the second Thursday in July. Vacations from Commencement to the 15th of September—a few days recess at the discretion of the Faculty at Christmas, and at the end of the first session.

ANNUAL EXPENSES.

The College bills are to be paid to the Treasurer in advance each session, and are as follows, viz:—

	FIRST SESSION,	SECOND SESSION,
Tuition Fee, - - - - -	$20,00	$18,00
Fee for use of Library and Recitation rooms, and for printing,	3,50	2,00
Janitor's services, - - - - -	2,00	1,00

Students lodging in College pay for room rent from $4,00 to $6,00 for the first session, and from $2,00 to $3,00 for the second. Those who do not employ the janitor pay fifty cents per session for keeping the halls in order.

RESIDENCE, BOARD, &c.

Students not resident in town, are required to lodge in the College.—All necessary furniture can be purchased here more economically than abroad. It is invariably taken back at what it is worth when the Student leaves.

The Steward of the College resides in one of the buildings, and keeps a table at his own expense, but subject to such regulations as the Faculty may prescribe. The price of board is $1,50 per week, to be paid monthly in advance. If the state of the market absolutely demands, 25 cents per week may be added by vote of the Faculty.

The price of board in town varies in different houses, from $1,25 to $2,00. If Students prefer to board themselves, the expense may be reduced as low as 62½ cents. Oak wood can be had for $2,00 per cord, and hickory for $3,00. For cutting, splitting and carrying wood to students' rooms, $1,00 per cord is charged. Washing is $1,00 per month, or 30 cents per dozen.

SUMMARY OF ANNUAL EXPENSES.

College fees, from	$39,50	to	$44,50
Room rent, “	6,00	“	9,00
Board, “	48,12	“	77,00
Washing, probably,	10,00	“	10,00
Fuel, “	6,00	“	6,00
Lights, “	5,38	“	5,38
	<hr/>
	$115,00	“	$151,88.

The Juniors and Seniors pay $3,00 a year extra for modern Languages.

Arrangements have been made by which the regular text-books can be furnished here at a cost below the city retail prices. As economy is essential to the moral and literary character, both of the Institution and of its members, the greatest care will be taken to restrict the expenditures of students. One method which is adopted for this purpose is presented in the following section, to which the attention of parents and guardians is particularly invited.

MANAGEMENT OF FUNDS.

All students, (except those who reside in town, and at the discretion of the Faculty, those who are of age,) are required to have a Patron, to take charge of their funds and disburse the same. He may be selected from among the Faculty, and may charge for his services a commission of three per cent, on all disbursements. As the success of this system depends mainly on the co-operation of parents or guardians, it is earnestly requested that they will signify to the Patron, at the beginning of each session, whether their sons or wards are to be allowed to incur any other than the necessary bills stated above, and if so, for what articles, and to what amount:—that they will inspect minutely the monthly account of disbursements, which will be sent to them, and communicate promptly to the Patron, any objection they have against them; and especially that they will forward all funds directly to the Patron, as a student who receives money from any other source, than from his Patron, or who fails in case he does so receive any, immediately to deliver it to his Patron, is regarded as guilty of a high offence. Remittances may be made either in cash, or what is better, by draft or check, upon Baltimore, Philadelphia or New York, payable to the Patron's order.

It must not be expected that even the most faithful observance of this system will, in every instance, secure all the economy which might be desired, but it must doubtless be much more successful than the ordinary method of allowing students the uncontrolled use of money.

LIBRARIES.

The College Library contains about	5,200 volumes,
The Belles-Lettres “ “	4,800 “
The Union Philosophical “ “	4,500 “
	<hr/> 14,500

All these are accessible to every student.

A faithful record is kept of the standing of each student, and a report of it is sent monthly to his parent or guardian.

For the benefit of indigent students, it has been provided that in cases where the Faculty and Financial Committee are satisfied that a young man of approved character is unable to pay his tuition, the Treasurer may take his note or bond, legally executed, payable (without interest,) in two years from the time he leaves College.

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION.

Prayers, with reading of the Scriptures, are attended in the chapel on the morning and evening of every day, except Saturday and Sunday, when the evening service is omitted. The students are also required to attend public worship twice on the Sabbath—in the morning, at such church, always, as their parents or guardians may designate in writing.

THE PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT

Is designed to fit students for College, and the studies are arranged with general, though not exclusive, reference to that end. The course of study extends through two years, each embracing two terms, as follows:—

FIRST YEAR.

FIRST SESSION.

English.—English Grammar, (Bullion's,) Geography, (Morse's,) Exercises in Reading.

Mathematics.—Arithmetic, (Davies').

Classics.—First Book in Latin, (McClintock and Crooks').

SECOND SESSION.

English.—English Grammar and Geography completed; Exercises in Composition.

Mathematics.—Arithmetic, Algebra (to simple Equations).

Classics.—First Book in Latin, completed; First Book in Greek, (McClintock & Crooks') to Part II.

SECOND YEAR.

FIRST SESSION.

English.—Roman History, Composition and Declamation.

Mathematics.—Arithmetic, (Davies' University), Algebra, (Davies' Elementary) Mensuration begun.

Classics.—Caesar (Four Books), First Book in Greek completed, Second Book in Greek, (Syntax and Reading Lessons) begun.

SECOND SESSION.

English.—General Grammar, Composition and Declamation.

Mathematics.—Arithmetic, Algebra and Mensuration completed.

Classics.—Virgil, (Four Books), Cyropædia, Greek and Roman Antiquities.

LITERARY AND SCIENTIFIC COURSE.

For those who may not wish to pursue a full course, an English course is provided. The first year embraces the studies of the Preparatory Department, except the languages; the second, those of the Freshman and Sophomore years with the same exception. The third, those of the Junior and Senior years except the languages and mathematics.

Those who are prepared, can enter on any one of these years, and at the close of their course, if they pass a satisfactory examination, on the whole, they will receive a certificate of proficiency, under the seal of the College. Students pursuing this course, may also attend on any other recitations of the College when the hours do not conflict with their appropriate studies.

GENERAL REMARKS.

The government of the Institution is strictly parental. It is designed to secure attention to study and correctness of deportment, not so much by the enforcement of rigid enactments, as by cultivating in the student a taste for intellectual pursuits and virtuous habits. But while youthful indiscretion will be treated with lenity, it is resolved that incurable indolence, bad morals and pecuniary extravagance shall not be suffered to remain to exert their corrupting influence within our walls.
