Philadelphia December 1st 1811

Gentlemen.

Having accepted an appointment under the United States, which will cause my removal to the seat of the general government, it becomes necessary that I should resign the duties of solicitor to your Board.

I cannot do so without expressing the high sense I have of the honor done me by your frequent relections to that post, as well as of the pleasure and advantage I have derived from it.

Please gentlemen to accept for yourselves individually, the assurances of my high respect and attachment.

Richard Rush.

To the members of the Board of health. —
