My dear Sir,

Lancaster 2 May 1839.

I shall leave here, with my niece, (Jo Volente), on Monday Morning & if I should arrive in Philadelphia in time for the afternoon boat or car, expect to be with you on Monday evening. I feel an inclination in favor of the Borden town School; but yet am strongly inclined to defer to the opinion of the ladies.

Ever your friend

General Garret. O. Wall.

James Buchanan

P.S. I could not write sooner; because I did not know, until to day I ~~of~~.

J. Buchanan
