Dear Sir:

I received your letter of the 4th instant, and in answer to it beg to say, that I would with great pleasure send you one of my father's notes or autographs were it in my power; but all that I had of a nature to part with have been given away from time to time throughout a succession of years, to other applications.

Regretting that I cannot comply with your request, I remain dear Sir with great respect your obt. servt.

Richard Rush.
