Washington 6 May 1845

My dear Sir /

It is my desire to retain you in your present office; & I think this can be accomplished, I would advise you, at this time, to get a few of your best known friends to write strong letters to the President, in your behalf & send them under cover to me.

Please to remember me very kindly & respectfully to Mr. Bacon & believe me to be sincerely & respectfully your friend, wth haste

Charles F. Brewster Esq

James Buchanan
