Sir,

Treasury Department
April 26, 1834.

I have received your letter of the 21st instant requesting a remittance of $8,000, to meet the expenses of Courts in your district — The appropriation for defraying the expenses of Courts of the United States included in the act of Congress "making appropriations for the Civil & Diplomatic expenses of Government for the year 1833" is exhausted,

The bill making similar appropriations for the present year, is now under discussion in the House of Representatives of the U.S., and as no payments can be made from the Treasury but in pursuance of appropriations, the advance requested by you must necessarily be delayed until the Bill now before Congress becomes a law.

I am respectfully, Sir,
Your obed^t. Serv^t,

Benjamin S. Bonsall Esq^r
Marshal for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania
Philadelphia.

A. B. Lowry
Secretary of the Treasury

Sir,

I have received your letter of the 21st instant requesting a remittance of $8000, to meet the expenses of Courts in your district. The appropriation for defraying the expenses of Courts of the United States included in the Act of Congress "making appropriations for the Civil & Diplomatic expenses of Government for the year 1833" is exhausted.

The bill making similar appropriations for the present year is now under discipline in the House of Representatives of the US, and as no payments can be made from the Treasury but in pursuance of appropriations, the advance requested by you must necessarily be delayed until the Bill now before Congress becomes a law.

I am respectfully, sir,
your obed. Serv.,
R.B. Taney

Benjamin S. Bonsall Esq.
