DICKINSON

Jan. 30, 1916.

My dear Mitchell,

Your letter found its way here, one morning when I too had the grippe, and now again, I have a bad cold. I can't imagine what I do to catch colds so easily. It surely is unusual. I know you got over the grippe when that spring weather started. Haven't we had a peculiar winter? I almost feared fraternities are giving their big dances this month.

You asked when mother and father go back to Japan. They said March 4th. I hate to think the time is drawing so near, as it will be so hard for us all. But such are the ways
of this world. Yes indeed you can have their address. Up to the middle of February they will be Hackensack, N. J. and their address is 141 Summit Ave. After that the spring fever, if it hadn't soon stopped. But yesterday it began to get cold once again, and I am hoping for some more skating. I surely enjoy it immensely, in fact, more than dancing, and that is saying a lot, for I do enjoy that.

Our fraternity gives its big dance on the 11th of this ^{next} month. It will be quite a large and informal affair.
 I am getting very anxious for it, so you can imagine. All the time until they go it will be $15 Hepburn St.

Williamport, Pa. They will be very glad to hear from you I know,
and will appreciate it
very much.

Write again, when you can. With best regards to you and Wae.

Sincerely yours,

Buckeye.
