

Dickinson College Archives & Special Collections

<http://archives.dickinson.edu/>

Documents Online

Title: Letter from James McCauley to Daniel Gilman

Date: April 10, 1876

Location: I-BaconJ-2001-1

Contact:

Archives & Special Collections
Waidner-Spahr Library
Dickinson College
P.O. Box 1773
Carlisle, PA 17013

717-245-1399

archives@dickinson.edu

Dickinson College,

J. A. McCauley, D. D.,
President.

C. F. Himes, Ph. D.,
Secretary and Treasurer.

Carlisle, Pa., April 10, 1876.

Presid. W. Gilman,
Dear Sir:

Mr. J. H. Dosh, of our present Senior Class, informs me of his purpose to apply for one of the Fellowships, which the Trustees of Johns Hopkins University are offering for excellence in certain branches of study. Mr. D. is ^a young man of good abilities, and has been a very diligent student. He will graduate with credit to himself and the College at our Commencement in June. While he has done well in all the studies of our course, he has shown special aptitudes for Scientific branches. He is a young man of excellent character — is a professing Christian, and has, during his stay with us, been correct in all his ways.

Yours truly,
J. M. Lauley.

April 10, 1876

Presid. D.C. Gilman

Dear sir:

Mr. S. H. Dosh, of our present Senior class, informs me of his purpose to apply for one of the Fellowships, which the Trustees of John Hopkins University are offering for excellence in certain branches of study. Mr D. is a young man of good abilities, and has been a very diligent student. He will graduate with credit to himself and the College at our Commencement in June. While he has done well in all the studies of our courses, he has shown special aptitudes for Scientific branches. He is a young man of excellent character – is a professing Christian, and has, during his stay with us, been correct in all his ways.

[page break]

Yours truly,
J.A. McCauley