My dear Gumm

I have a conversation with General Beane this morning - He is furiously incensed; but says what has been we should not in Phoe.

He thinks as I do that someone should be in your company and I will see him this week end after evening. We will try to see you - The fact is to accomplish results we should have a meeting in Phoe. and look the whole matter over -

Beane is going to the wedding of his cousin in Friday and cannot meet this week - when I see you we will try to arrange a time -

Truly yours friend

Wm. Henry Pollack U. C. Justice
