PENNSYLVANIA,
Executive Chamber,

Harrisburg Pa. 20 Jan'y 1865

Dear Sir

Mr. Bates has been in the office of the Secretary of the Com. for four years by my appointment.

I had some knowledge of him before he came here and of his standing and character in the County in which he resides.

It affords me great pleasure to recommend him to you as a reliable prompt and industrious man of excellent character in all respects.

As a correspondent and Secretary or accountant Mr. Bates has peculiar fitness and if you desire his services for such employment I cannot say too much in his favour.

Yours respectfully
James Buchanan Esq

my respectful
D. G. Leetwin
