Telephone No.—1513 B'klyn.

BROOKLYN, N. Y.,.....December 7th, 1897.....189

My dear and genial friend:

I am glad to see by your interesting favor of the 4th that age does not dim the lustre of your pen or subdue the fervor and generosity of your expressions.

People tell me, flatteringly I suppose, that I change but little, but you can tell better by examining the photograph taken in February last which I mail you to-day.

I agree with you as to the value and interest of the Annual Reports - among the orations in which yours shines conspicuously. I shall not forget that Reunion and the notable banquet in which general Sickles' crutche served me as a musical baton - to the imminent danger of neighboring heads.

We meet next year at Niagara Falls and I hope you can be there.

Sincerely yours,

Luther R. Marsh, Esq
10 Benton Avenue, Middletown, Ct

Horatio C. King

P.S. I voted for McKinley.
