and tell them how much I sympathize with all, far I know that each one loved, dear Piet, and will miss her wise counsel her precious words and her genial smile.

26^{to} Nov.

My dear, dear, Esther,

I cannot express to you how much I feel for you. For years you have been devoted to dear Piet, trying to gratify her every thought and wish. - You just lived for her. - and now you are alone. - I expect that it is one of the hardest trials of your life but you have grown strong dear Esther. - Piet has trained you and you must not a fine field of work fail her in the inner around you. life. Piet is a grand. Poor. Either you have soul and her presence many a hard struggle amongst you all was before you but. Piet's a great boon. My heart loving and soothing aches to think that I shall interest and care will not see her again in her ever around you her genial form but and remember dear we shall all soon pass that through I do not on and be together write to you often on the other side. I am one of your old and loving

You will all of you have to work doubly friends - hard now and I know you will for you are brave and devoted souls and you have Constance Wachtmeister give kind words of greeting and friend ship to all your party
