Nov. 28. 1902

My dearest Esther,

Dear Piet must have been taken in her sleep in order that she might be saved much suffering, for such a long time now her health had become so bad, that life was a great burden to her. To say that I am grieved at her loss for all your sakes & my own Conveys but little I feel, but I have no fear for the E.S. or F.S. for it is left in good hands. You are quite able to take up the E.S. work, though you will feel the weight of the responsibility much at first. Dr. Ficke will carry on his Section work & all the members will rally round you. When you have time I shall be so glad to have an account of all that is arranged. And if you could send in some short notice to the Banner it would be welcome. Piet was so well beloved & widely known by all the older members here, that they would gladly hear all that you have not time to write to each.

Dear Piet will always live in my heart as one of my dearest friends, a real rock & bulwark of the T.S. I am so very glad that she came over last summer.

With much love

Ever y^r. loving friend
Lawrence.
