THEOSOPHICAL
REVIEW.

59, CHEYNE COURT,
CHELSEA.

Dear Esther,

I have just received your wire with the sad news that Piet has departed. You need hardly my written word to assure you of my profoundest sympathy. It is not that we only respected Piet;
we loved her.

It is not that we sorrow for her; it is well with her & there are many of us who would prefer to be as she is. But we sorrow with you for what is a very great,
I will not say irretrievable, loss, for irretrievable is a word we do not know in Theosophy.

As soon as the others
know there will be no lack of mourners here - for Pich has many warm friends in England.

I am just off to the sessions to tell them the tidings & hope you will receive official evidence of the respect we bear her by at least the following mail to this

with our united love to all if you
in this moment of
been suffering
most cordially ever
Yours
G. R. Mead.
