Judge John M. Read.

Dear Sir

Will you be kind enough to call and see me. Any time you may fix upon I will be at home, either in the morning between 10 & half past two, or after half past five in the afternoon - I am sorry to trouble you. but it is upon a point of such vital importance to me that I feel sure you will aid me. I wish your advice as you understand my case better, and I feel more confidence in your judgement than in that of any one else.

I am so anxious to do right and what is wisest and best under the circumstances that I felt constrained to ask your advice yours in trouble

Mary F. Thomson
