Paris - Feb. 27. '35.

My dear Matilda.

Much fatigued, by a ride of 30
hours from Brussels, I am only able to tell you that I arrived in this renowned city about an hour since in good health. I was at this moment seated in my little room provided for me by Alcegaire (who was full) at the Windsor Hotel next door to his own. I wrote
2 or 3 days since from Brussels - will write again shortly. Kiss my children.

Yr. affec. son.
