Washington, March 20. 1874.

Dear Sir

I have received the package of notes enclosed in your letter of the 16th & thank you for this continuation of your many favors of the same character. I have taken the liberty of making public acknowledgment; in the introduction of the 'Annual Record' for 1873, which is just out, & of which a copy will be sent you in a few days, my indebtedness to you. I hope this new volume will find such favor in your eyes as to warrant a continuation of favorable notices, such as you have been kind enough to give to it.

It appears as a book of 850 pages, & of course, considerably larger than any of its predecessors.

I have strong hopes that the new Scientific Monthly will be started before a great while, & shall not fail to do what I can to induce the proprietors to secure your services as a contributor.

Very truly yours,
Spencer T. Baird
