Washington, D.C., May 3, 1883.

SPENCER F. BAIRD, SECRETARY.

Dear Sir:

I wish it were in my power to furnish the funds for a special expedition to Labrador. Your work last year was so satisfactory that a continuation of it could not fail to be beneficial to science. Unfortunately, however, our funds for the year are all appropriated in several directions.

We are expecting from Prof. Verrill his papers on your invertebrates, and when they come to hand they will be duly published.

I send you the latest Fish Commission Report—that for 1879.

Yours truly,

W. S. Clark
