Sydenham, near Philadelphia - 3. Feb. 1847.

My dear Sir,

Will you have the kindness to drop me a line
at your perfect convenience, informing me to what day the Reports adjourned? I have been looking into the Intelligencer, but

Mr French.

have not yet seen it there.

Pray excuse this trouble; and may I venture to ask in addition, if you chanced to hear any thing of a pair of stray gold spectacles which I left behind me, either in the room of our meeting - or one of Mr Dickens's rooms.

I remain your very faithful and oblige'd servt.

Richard Rush.
