Phil<sup>a</sup> Jan 20/55

Respected friend

Yours of the 17th evening $1. is duly received. Enclosed find a receipt

I will make an effort to have your paper reach you more regularly.

Thank you for your good will in the matter
of getting a new subscri: ber to the Standard. I hope you may succeed.

Our cause we think is going on well; though it must be confessed several is hard to be taken. The cita: del of slavery makes a brave defiance & his soldiers fight well. Still victory must in the end perch on the banner of the right. "If God be for us, who can be a: saiust- us"?

Yours truly

Thank you for your good will in the matter of getting a new subscription to the Standard. I hope you may succeed.

Our cause we think is going on well: though it may be confessed Sebastapol [Sevastopol] is hard to be taken. The citadel of slavery makes a brave defence & her soldiers fight well. Still victory must in the end perch on the banner of the right. "If god be for us, who can be against us"?

Yours truly

J.M. McKim
