Baltimore Nov. 6. 1835

My Dear Sir

Permit me to introduce to you my particular friend Mr. Mackall. - He visits Washington in consequence of some difficulty concerning his son at West Point. - I know nothing in relation to that matter - nor am I personally acquainted with the young gentleman. - But I have been intimately acquainted with Mr. Mackall himself from his boyhood & a more amiable & deserving man does live - nor one who has been a student or true friend to the administration of Gen. Jackson

Most truly your friend

A. B. Taney
