New York, May 13 1892 .

Dear Mr. Miller:

The book has not come yet, but on its arrival I shall take pleasure in doing what you requested. Yes I do recollect your lecture on "Love, Courtship and Marriage". I was greatly bored thereby, for you see I have a lecture on "Before Marriage and After" which I have never dared to deliver since yours at DeFuniak Springs. By request it is to be given this summer in Indiana, and I intend to embroider it wherever I can with my remembrances of your brilliant address.

Faithfully & Gratefully,
Charles F. Deems

P.S. The Book has arrived, been written in and sent by John.
